TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of His Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas John Wedderburn of London Esquire, executor of the late General Patrick Ross, formerly of Madras in the East Indies, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted himself, his heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by him under the said Indenture: And whereas the said late Patrick Ross did become party to certain Articles of Agreement bearing date the third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the county of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the persons therein named as trustees, of the third part; and did thereby transfer and assign over to the said trustees one twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot, or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned upon the trusts in the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Mowbray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, being the only trustees who are parties to the said Articles of Agreement, are also parties to the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: Now know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, having taken into consideration a Claim made on behalf of the heirs of the said late Patrick Ross, for the principal sum of four hundred and six thousand six hundred and eighteen Pagodas twenty-five Fanams and thirty-two Cash (P^s 406,618. 25 f. 32 c.) which with the arrears of interest due thereon is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of five hundred and fifteen thousand eight hundred and forty-eight Pagodas twenty-three Fanams and thirty-two Cash (P^s 515,848. 23 f. 32 c.) or two hundred and six thousand three hundred and thirty-nine Pounds eight Shillings and sixpence sterling (£.206,339. 8 s. 6 d.); TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased; and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them; the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas Sir John Macpherson of Brompton Grove, in the parish of Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, Baronet, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted himself, his heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by him under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Sir John Macpherson hath executed certain Articles of Agreement, bearing date the third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several Persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the County of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the Persons therein named as Trustees, of the third part; and hath thereby transferred and assigned over to the said Trustees one-twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon, the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned upon the trusts in the said Articles of Agreement, mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, being the surviving Trustees who have executed the said Articles of Agreement, have also executed the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them

under the said Indenture: And whereas it was resolved by the Board, on the twenty-fifth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that the sum of four thousand five hundred Pagodas (P^s 4,500.) with interest thereon, at the rate of five per cent. per annum, from the seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, to the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, was justly due and owing from the said late Ameer ul Omrah to the said Sir John Macpherson; and that the Chop for one lac of Rupees (R^s 100,000.) under date the twenty-seventh Zehij eleven hundred and ninety of the Hegyra, granted by his said Highness to the said Sir John Macpherson, partly on the ground of the sale of a house, and partly as a gift or present to the said Sir John Macpherson, should be cancelled and delivered up to the Court of Directors of the said United East India Company, when the said sum of four thousand five hundred Pagodas (P^s 4,500.) with interest thereon as aforesaid should be awarded to him the said Sir John Macpherson: And whereas the said sum of four thousand five hundred Pagodas (P^s 4,500.) with interest thereon as aforesaid, amounting on the said fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to ten thousand six hundred and seventeen Pagodas twenty-two Fanams and thirty-four Cash (P^s 10,617. 22 f. 34 c.) or four thousand two hundred and forty-seven Pounds and three-pence sterling (£. 4,247. 0s. 3d.) could not before be awarded, because the amount of the property belonging to his Highness the said Ameer, which passed at his death into the hands of the Nabob Wallajah, was not sufficiently known, nor the amount of the debts claimed against his said Highness sufficiently ascertained: And whereas, after having calculated the amount of the said property and of the said debts so claimed, it is now established to the satisfaction of us the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, that by allowing all such sums as have been claimed and may be found justly due and owing from his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the admissions to participate in the said fund in respect of the debts contracted by his said Highness, will not exceed in amount the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed on his death into the hands of the late Nabob Wallajah, and which otherwise would have been justly liable to the satisfaction of the debts of his Highness the said Ameer; and therefore all such debts, agreeably to the directions of the seventh clause of the aforesaid Deed of Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, are payable by the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah: Now know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the said sum of ten thousand six hundred and seventeen Pagodas twenty-two Fanams and thirty-four Cash (P^s 10,617. 22 f. 34 c.) or four thousand two hundred and forty-seven Pounds and three-pence sterling (£. 4,247. 0s. 3d.) was and still is justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the said Sir John Macpherson and his representatives: And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt, being a debt contracted by his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, is and shall be comprised in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That the sum of ten thousand and eighty-six Pagodas twenty-seven Fanams and forty-eight Cash (P^s 10,086. 27 f. 48 c.) or four thousand and thirty-four Pounds thirteen Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 4,034. 13s. 3d.) being a portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the said Sir John Macpherson; and that the said Sir John Macpherson hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of ten thousand and eighty-six Pagodas twenty-seven Fanams and forty-eight Cash, (P^s 10,086. 27 f. 48 c.) or four thousand and thirty-four Pounds thirteen Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 4,034. 13s. 3d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private Debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, and of the Ameer ul Omrah; and that the sum of five hundred and thirty Pagodas thirty-six Fanams and sixty-six Cash (P^s 530. 36 f. 66 c.) or two hundred and twelve Pounds and seven Shillings sterling (£. 212. 7s.), being the remainder of the said debt, is due and owing to George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, as assignees aforesaid; and that the said George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, have and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of five hundred and thirty Pagodas thirty-six Fanams and sixty-six Cash (P^s 530. 36 f. 66 c.) or two hundred and twelve Pounds and seven Shillings sterling (£. 212. 7s.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and of the Ameer ul Omrah: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Ameer ul Omrah, and the said Nabob Wallajah, and his successors or representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever in respect of the said debt or the demand made thereon, at the instance of the said Sir John Macpherson, or of any other person or persons whatsoever: And we do further Award and Order, That the Chop aforesaid shall be cancelled and delivered up to the Court of Directors of the said United East India Company. In witness whereof, we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, have hereunto set our hands the twenty-fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

CLAIM N° 86 in our First Report.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas Lieutenant Colonel (now Major General) Keith Macalister, formerly of Dover Street in the County of Middlesex, administrator of the late Captain John Macalister, formerly of Madras in the East Indies, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted himself, his heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order, and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by him under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Major General Keith Macalister, administrator as aforesaid, hath executed certain Articles of Agreement bearing date the third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the said County of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the Persons therein named as Trustees, of the third part; and hath thereby transferred and assigned over to the said Trustees one-twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot, or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up; to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned upon the Trusts in the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, being the surviving Trustees who have executed the said Articles of Agreement, have also executed the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order, and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Keith Macalister, administrator as aforesaid, hath preferred a Claim upon the said late Ameer ul Omrah, for the principal sum of four thousand two hundred and eighty-five Pagodas (P^s 4,285.) which with the arrears of interest alledged to be due thereon, is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of ten thousand and ninety-five Pagodas (P^s 10,095.) or four thousand and thirty-eight Pounds sterling (£. 4,038.): And whereas it was resolved by the Board on the nineteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that the sum of nine thousand seven hundred and ninety-five Pagodas twenty-eight Fanams and forty-eight Cash (P^s 9,795. 28 f. 48 c.) or three thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds five Shillings and six-pence sterling (£. 3,918. 5 s. 6 d.) was on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, and continued to be justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Ameer ul Omrah, to the said Keith Macalister, administrator as aforesaid, and his representatives, on account of advances of money by the late Captain John Macalister, for which his said Highness made himself responsible; and that the Bond for four thousand one hundred and eighteen Pagodas and four Annas (P^s 4,118. 4 a.) under date the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and the other securities granted by the said Ameer in favour of the late Captain John Macalister, for the said advances of money for which his said Highness so made himself responsible as aforesaid, shall be cancelled and delivered up to the Court of Directors of the said United East India Company: And whereas the said sum of nine thousand seven hundred and ninety-five Pagodas twenty-eight Fanams and forty-eight Cash (P^s 9,795. 28 f. 48 c.) or three thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds five Shillings and six-pence sterling (£. 3,918. 5 s. 6 d.) could not before be awarded, because the amount of the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed at his death into the hands of the Nabob Wallajah, was not sufficiently known, nor the amount of the debts claimed against the late Ameer sufficiently ascertained: And whereas after having calculated the amount of the said property and of the debts so claimed, it has since been established to the satisfaction of us the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, that by allowing all such sums as have been claimed, and may be found justly due and owing from his said Highness the late Ameer ul Omrah, the admissions to participate in the said fund in respect of the debts contracted by his said Highness, will not exceed in amount the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed on his death into the hands of the late Nabob Wallajah, and which otherwise would have been justly liable to the satisfaction of the debts of his Highness the said late Ameer;

Ameer; and therefore all such debts, agreeably to the directions of the Seventh Clause of the aforesaid Deed of Indenture, bearing date the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, are payable by the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah: Now know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, there was and still is justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the late Captain John Macalister, the sum of nine thousand seven hundred and ninety-five Pagodas twenty-eight Fanams and forty-eight Cash (P^s 9,795. 28 f. 48 c.) or three thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds five Shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 3,918. 5 s. 6 d.): And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt being a debt contracted by his said late Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, is and shall be comprised in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That the sum of nine thousand three hundred and five Pagodas thirty-seven Fanams and fifty-four Cash (P^s 9,305. 37 f. 54 c.) or three thousand seven hundred and twenty-two Pounds seven Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 3,722. 7 s. 3 d.) being a portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the said Major General Keith Macalister, administrator as aforesaid, and that the said Major General Keith Macalister hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of nine thousand three hundred and five Pagodas thirty-seven Fanams and fifty-four Cash (P^s 9,305. 37 f. 54 c.) or three thousand seven hundred and twenty-two Pounds seven Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 3,722. 7 s. 3 d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah; and that the sum of four hundred and eighty Pagodas thirty-two Fanams and seventy-four Cash (P^s 489. 32 f. 74 c.) or one hundred and ninety-five Pounds eighteen Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 195. 18 s. 3 d.) being the remainder of the said debt, is due and owing to George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly; as assignees aforesaid; and that the said George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, have and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of four hundred and eighty-nine Pagodas thirty-two Fanams and seventy-four Cash (P^s 489. 32 f. 74 c.) or one hundred and ninety-five Pounds eighteen Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 195. 18 s. 3 d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Ameer ul Omrah, and the said Nabob Wallajah, and his successors and representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever in respect of the said debt, or the demand made thereon, at the instance of the said Major General Keith Macalister, administrator as aforesaid, or of any other person or persons whatsoever: And we do further Award and Order, That the bond for four thousand one hundred and eighteen Pagodas and four Annas (P^s 4,118. 4 a.) under date the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and the other securities granted by his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah in favour of the late Captain John Macalister, for monies for which his said Highness rendered himself responsible as aforesaid, be cancelled and delivered up to the Court of Directors of the United East India Company. In witness whereof, we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, have hereunto set our hands, the twenty-fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come; We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs, and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas John Stewart, of London, one of the executors named in the will of the late Charles Bromley, formerly of Madras in the East Indies, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and he hath thereby submitted the estate of the said Charles Bromley, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made on behalf of the said estate under the said Indenture: And whereas the said John Stewart, executor as aforesaid, hath become party to certain Articles of Agreement bearing date the first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand thousand eight hundred and four, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of Arcot, of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the County of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the Persons therein named as Trustees, of the third part; and hath thereby transferred and assigned over to the said John Fordyce one-fortieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him the said John Stewart, executor as aforesaid, from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one-fortieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up; and hath further transferred and assigned over to the said Trustees one other fortieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him the said John Stewart, executor as aforesaid, from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one other fortieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one other fortieth part so thereby to them assigned upon the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas the said John Fordyce did execute the said Articles of Agreement of the first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, and did also execute the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five: And whereas Charles Binny, George Moubray, and Valentine Conolly, being the surviving Trustees who have executed the said Articles of Agreement, have also executed the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and thus he and they respectively submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: And whereas it appears by Award number three hundred and thirty-seven (N^o 337) passed on the sixteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in favour of the said John Stewart, executor as aforesaid, in the Claim made by him as such executor upon his Highness the late Nabob Wallajah, that the sum of three thousand five hundred and fourteen Pagodas thirteen-one Fanams and fourteen Cash (P^s 3,514. 31 f. 14 c.) or one thousand four hundred and five Pounds seventeen Shillings and eleven-pence sterling (£1,405. 17 s. 11 d.) part of the said Claim upon his said Highness, should have been claimed from his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, that being the amount which according to the Board's Minute of the day and date aforesaid, appeared to be due on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, from the said late Ameer to the said John Stewart, executor as aforesaid: And whereas it appears by the Board's Minute on the eighth and thirteenth days of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, that by virtue of original documents subsequently received from India, the aggregate amount justly due from the representatives of the late Ameer ul Omrah, was not on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, three thousand five hundred and fourteen Pagodas thirty-one Fanams and fourteen Cash (P^s 3,514. 31 f. 14 c.) or one thousand four hundred and five Pounds seventeen Shillings and eleven-pence sterling (£1,405. 17 s. 11 d.) as therein stated, but two thousand seven hundred and eighty Pagodas forty Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 2,780. 40 f. 18 c.) or one thousand one hundred and twelve Pounds seven Shillings and eight-pence sterling (£1,112. 7 s. 8 d.): And whereas the said sum of two thousand seven hundred and eighty Pagodas forty Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 2,780. 40 f. 18 c.) or one thousand one hundred and twelve Pounds seven Shillings and eight-pence sterling (£1,112. 7 s. 8 d.) could not before be awarded, because the amount of the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed at his death into the hands of the said Nabob Wallajah, was not sufficiently known, nor the amount of the debts claimed against the said Ameer sufficiently ascertained: And whereas after having calculated the amount of the said property and of the said debt so claimed, it is now established to the satisfaction of us the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, that by allowing all such sums as have been claimed, and may be found justly due and owing from his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the admissions to participate in the said fund in respect of the debts contracted by his said Highness, will not exceed in amount the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed on his death into the hands of the late Nabob Wallajah, and which otherwise would have been liable to the satisfaction of the debts of his Highness the said late Ameer; and therefore all such debts, agreeably to the directions of the seventh clause of the aforesaid deed of Indenture, bearing date the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, are payable by the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah: Now know ye, that we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That upon the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the sum of two thousand seven hundred and eighty Pagodas forty Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 2,780. 40 f. 18 c.) or one thousand one hundred and twelve Pounds Seven shillings and eight pence sterling (£1,112. 7 s. 8 d.) and no more, was and still is justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Charles Bromley: And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt, being a debt contracted by his said Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, is and shall be comprized in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That the sum of two thousand six hundred and forty-one Pagodas thirty-eight Fanams and eighteen cash (P^s 2,641. 38 f. 18 c.) or one thousand and fifty-six pounds fifteen shillings and four-pence sterling (£1,056. 15 s. 4 d.)

being a portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the said John Stewart, executor a, aforesaid; and that the said John Stewart, as such executor, hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the sum of two thousand six hundred and forty-one Pagodas thirty-eight Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 2,641. 38 f. 18 c.) or one thousand and fifty-six pounds fifteen shillings and four-pence sterling (£.1,056. 15s. 4d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah; and that the sum of sixty-nine Pagodas and twenty-two Fanams (P^s 69. 22 f.) or twenty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and two-pence sterling (£.27. 16s. 2d.) being a further portion of the said debt, is due and owing to James King of Tavistock Place in the County of Middlesex, one of the executors named in the will of the said late John Fordyce; and that the said James King, as such executor, hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of sixty-nine Pagodas and twenty-two Fanams (P^s 69. 22 f.) or twenty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and two-pence sterling (£.27. 16s. 2d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah; and that the sum of sixty-nine Pagodas and twenty-two Fanams (P^s 69. 22 f.) or twenty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and two-pence sterling (£.27. 16s. 2d.) being the remainder of the said debt, is due and owing to the said Charles Binny, George Mowbray, and Valentine Conolly, as assignees aforesaid; and that the said Charles Binny, George Mowbray, and Valentine Conolly, have and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of sixty-nine Pagodas and twenty-two Fanams (P^s 69. 22 f.) or twenty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and two-pence sterling (£.27. 16s. 2d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Ameer and the said Nabob Wallajah, his successors and representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all demand whatsoever in respect of the said debt, at the instance of the said John Stewart, or of any other Person or Persons whatsoever. In witness whereof, we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, have hereunto set our hands, the twenty-fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereunto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas Benjamin Wimberley Salmon of Ormesby in the County of Norfolk, Clerk, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted himself, his heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order, and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by him under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Benjamin Wimberley Salmon hath executed certain Articles of Agreement, bearing date the third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the County of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the persons therein named as Trustees, of the third part; and hath thereby transferred and assigned over to the said Trustees, one-twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to him from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot, or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned, upon the trusts in the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Mowbray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, being the surviving Trustees who have executed the said Articles of Agreement, have also executed the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order, and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Benjamin Wimberley Salmon hath preferred a Claim upon his late Highness the

the Ameer-ul Omrah, for the principal sum of seven hundred and sixty Pagodas (P^s 760.) for goods sold to his said Highness, which, with the arrears of interest alledged to be due thereon, is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight Pagodas six Fanams and thirty-two Cash (P^s 1,838. 6 f. 32 c.) or seven hundred and thirty-five Pounds five Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 735. 5 s. 3 d.). And whereas it appears by referring to the Board's Minute on the eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that the sum of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven Pagodas thirty-nine Fanams and seventy-four Cash (P^s 1,837. 39 f. 74 c.) or seven hundred and thirty-five Pounds three Shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 735. 3 s. 7 d.) was on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, and continued to be due and owing from the representatives of the said late Ameer ul Omrah to the said Benjamin Wimberley Salmon, and his representatives, but that the same could not be awarded until the amount of the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed at his death into the hands of the Nabob Wallajah should be discovered, and the amount of the debts claimed against the late Ameer should be ascertained: And whereas, after having calculated the amount of the said property and of the said debt so claimed, it has since been established to the satisfaction of us, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, that by allowing all such sums as have been claimed, and may be found justly due and owing from his said Highness the late Ameer ul Omrah, the admissions to participate in the said fund in respect of the debts contracted by his said Highness, will not exceed in amount the property belonging to his said Highness, which passed on his death into the hands of the late Nabob Wallajah, and which otherwise would have been justly liable to the satisfaction of the debts of his Highness the said late Ameer, and therefore all such debts agreeably to the directions of the Seventh Clause of the aforesaid Deed of Indenture, bearing date the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, are payable by the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah: Now know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, that on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, there was justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Ameer ul Omrah, to the said Benjamin Wimberley Salmon and his representatives, the sum of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven Pagodas thirty-nine Fanams and seventy-four Cash (P^s 1,837. 39 f. 74 c.) or seven hundred and thirty-five Pounds three Shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 735. 3 s. 7 d.): And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt being a debt contracted by his said late Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, is and shall be comprised in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That the sum of one thousand seven hundred and forty-six Pagodas two Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 1,746. 2 f. 18 c.) or six hundred and ninety-eight Pounds eight Shillings and five-pence sterling (£. 698. 8 s. 5 d.) being a portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the said Benjamin Wymberley Salmon, and that the said Benjamin Wymberley Salmon hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of one thousand seven hundred and forty-six Pagodas two Fanams and eighteen Cash (P^s 1,746. 2 f. 18 c.) or six hundred and ninety-eight Pounds eight Shillings and five-pence sterling (£. 698. 8 s. 5 d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and of the Ameer ul Omrah; and that the sum of ninety-one Pagodas thirty-seven Fanams and fifty-six Cash (P^s 91. 37 f. 56 c.) or thirty-six Pounds fifteen Shillings and two-pence sterling (£. 36. 15 s. 2 d.) being the remainder of the said debt, is due and owing to George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, as assignees aforesaid; and that the said George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, have and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of ninety-one Pagodas thirty-seven Fanams and fifty-six Cash (P^s 91. 37 f. 56 c.) or thirty-six Pounds fifteen Shillings and two-pence sterling (£. 36. 15 s. 2 d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and of the Ameer ul Omrah: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Ameer ul Omrah, and of the said Nabob Wallajah, his successors and representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever, in respect of the said debt or the demand made thereon, at the instance of the said Benjamin Wymberley Salmon, or of any other person or persons whatsoever. P^s 17,461.) by him assigned to the said Donald Campbell, and, with the arrears of interest, stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of thirty-five thousand three hundred and eighty-eight Star Pagodas seventeen Fanams and twenty Cash (S P^s 35,388. 17 f. 20 c.) or fourteen thousand one hundred and fifty-five Pounds seven Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 14,155. 7 s. 3 d.): And having also taken into consideration a Claim made by certain of the Trustees named in the said Articles of Agreement of the third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, for themselves and others, as assignees aforesaid, for the one-twentieth part as aforesaid of the sum claimed as aforesaid by the said Mary Campbell, assignee as aforesaid; and having duly investigated the said Claims, according to the covenants, provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture, do find, That his Highness the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah granted a Bond to Mr. Darke, meaning the said Charles Darke, bearing date the first day of Ramzan in the year eleven hundred and ninety-seven of the Hegyra, stated to correspond with the first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, for the principal sum of seventeen thousand four hundred and sixty-one Star Pagodas (S. P^s 39,491) from which is deducted the sum of seven hundred and sixty-eight Star Pagodas and twenty-seven Fanams (S. P^s 768. 27 f.) alleged to have been received in part discharge thereof, leaving as the balance claimed the sum of thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and twenty-two Star Pagodas and seventeen Fanams (S. P^s 38,722. 17 f.) or fifteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight Pounds and nineteen Shillings sterling (£. 15,988. 19 s.); and having duly investigated the said Claim, according to the covenants, provisions, and directions of the aforesaid Indenture, do find, That the said Claim originated in a demand for the value of a large quantity of grain, alleged to have been delivered to Eatibar Khan, the Nabob's manager at Trichinopoly, which grain is stated to have been captured from Hyder Ally, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty, by a detachment under the command of the said late Lieutenant Colonel John Long, then Ensign Long; and we do further find, That his said late Highness the Nabob Wallajah did, on or about the twenty-seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, grant a Tunkah on the Tinnevely Country, to the said Lieutenant Colonel John Long, then Captain Long, for two thousand Star Pagodas (S. P^s 2,000) in lieu of his Claim for the value of the said grain, a portion of which Tunkah has been paid; and we do further find, That on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the sum of two thousand two hundred and five Pagodas fourteen Fanams and fifty-six Cash (P^s 2,205. 14 f. 56 c.) or eight hundred and eighty-two Pounds two Shillings and ten pence sterling (£. 882. 2 s. 10 d.) and no more, was and still is justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah, to the said Lieutenant Colonel John Long, since deceased, and his representatives, in respect of the said Claim: And we the said Thomas Cockburn and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the sum of two thousand two hundred and five Pagodas fourteen Fanams and fifty-six Cash (P^s 2,205. 14 f. 56 c.) or eight hundred and eighty-two Pounds two Shillings and ten pence sterling (£. 882. 2 s. 10 d.) and no more, was due and owing to the said Frances Hiffernan, administratrix as aforesaid, and that the said Frances Hiffernan hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of two thousand two hundred hundred and five Pagodas fourteen Fanams and fifty-six Cash (P^s 2,205. 14 f. 56 c.) or eight hundred and eighty-two Pounds two Shillings and ten Pence sterling (£. 882. 2 s. 10 d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private Debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic: And we do further Award and Order, That the said Debt being a debt contracted subsequent to the twelfth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, is and shall be comprised in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Nabob Wallajah, and his successors or representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever in respect of the said debt claimed at the instance of the said late Lieutenant Colonel John Long, or of any other Person or Persons whatsoever: And we do further Award and Order, That the aforesaid Tunkah shall be cancelled, and it is hereby declared cancelled accordingly: In witness whereof, we the said Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, have hereunto set our hands, the twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

THE Aggregate Sterling Amount, adjudicated in favour } £.1,856,465. 13. 4½.
of Claimants, to the date of this Report, is -

In further obedience to the Act of Parliament, we have likewise to state, That two applications, with which we have complied, have been made to us by parties for provisional allowances, upon security to refund and pay back the whole or such part of the interest, as, according to our final determinations it shall appear they were not entitled to, in conformity to the 24th clause of the Deed of Agreement. As the Act of Parliament requires us to state the grounds of our decision in such cases as we have provisionally adjudicated, we present to this Honourable House, Extracts from our Proceedings of the determinations which we have made upon the said two applications.

EXTRACTS from the Proceedings of the 10th December 1816.

Provisional Allowance in the Claims of the Reverend Colston Carr, appointed by the Court of Chancery, Receiver of the outstanding Debts of his Brother the late Captain Robert Carr.

" Resumed the consideration of the Claims of the Reverend Colston Carr, appointed by the Court of Chancery, Receiver of the outstanding Debts of his brother the late Captain Robert Carr. First, on a Persian Bond of the late Omdut ul Omrah to Charles Darke, dated the 21st October 1776, for Pagodas 10,000, pledged by the said Charles Darke, as security for the payment of his Bond to Captain Robert Carr, for Pagodas 10,365, dated the 23d day of July 1782, bearing interest at 8 per cent. per annum; Secondly, on a Persian Bond from the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the said late Captain Robert Carr, for Pagodas 5,364½, dated the 1st August 1783, first taken into consideration on the 9th November 1815."

" Read again letter from the Reverend Colston Carr, under date 14th March 1816, entered in meeting of that day, applying for a Provisional Adjudication on the Bonds in claim."

" Adverting to the evidence and documents in this case, and the proceedings upon it, viz. of the 9th and 28th November 1815, 5th March 1816, and 23d August 1816; the Commissioners are of opinion, that the Claims in question are probably just and allowable."

" Resolved accordingly, That the aggregate sum of thirty-two thousand five hundred and eight Pagodas eleven Fanams and seventy-four Cash (P^s 32,508. 11 f. 74 c.) or thirteen thousand and three Pounds six Shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 13,003. 6 s. 3 d.) shall be provisionally allowed and established as a Debt in the Second Class, in the name of the Reverend Colston Carr of Ealing in the County of Middlesex, as appointed Receiver of the outstanding debts of his late brother Captain Robert Carr, and that Interest shall be payable thereon from the 15th day of May 1804, and until the further directions of the Board, at the provisional rate of three (3) per cent. per annum; and that a Certificate be issued to the Registers in London, directing them to enter the aforesaid sum to the credit of the said Reverend Colston Carr, as soon as he shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the Board, for the sum of six thousand pounds sterling (£. 6,000.) or such sum as he shall bonâ fide receive on account of provisional Interest."

Provisional Allowance in the Claim of the Estate of Captain William Blacker, Mortgagee of Charles Darke.

" Resumed the consideration of the Claim of the estate of Captain William Blacker, mortgagee of Charles Darke, on the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah's Bond for 20,000 Pagodas to Charles Darke, under date 1st January 1786. The amount found due upon this Bond on the 15th day of May 1804, P^s 13,156. 1 f. 5 c. or £. 5,262. 8 s. 2½ d. was withdrawn from the Absolute Award on the Claims of Charles Darke and his assigns and mortgagees, N^o 415, under date 23d August 1816, on the ground that the titles of the parties required further investigation."

" The actual amount of the debt due upon mortgage to the estate of William Blacker, by the estate of Charles Darke, being in a state of uncertainty."

" Resolved, in order to prevent a waste of the property belonging to the parties who may ultimately prove to be interested therein, to make a Provisional Adjudication of the amount found due on the Bond in Claim (deducting the one-twentieth thereof assigned by James Blacker, the executor of William Blacker, and by the late Charles Darke to the trustees of the late John Fordyce, in favour of William Nash Round Esquire of Whitehall Place in the City of Westminster, and William Harding Esquire* of the Transport Office in the City of Westminster, in trust for the parties interested, on a declaration of trust to pay and make over the stock of the funds, which shall or may accumulate therefrom, according to the final Absolute Award which we or the Commissioners for the time being shall make and declare."

* The name of Major General John Fuller, of Brighthelmstone, in the County of Sussex, has been since substituted for that of William Harding, Esquire.

† See the former Note.

" Resolved accordingly, That the sum of twelve thousand four hundred and ninety-eight Pagodas nine Fanams and thirty-three Cash (P^s 12,498. 9 f. 33 c.) or four thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine Pounds five Shillings and nine-pence halfpenny sterling (£. 4,999. 5 s. 9½ d.) shall be, and it is hereby provisionally adjudicated to the said William Nash Round Esquire, and William Harding Esquire†, in the Second Class, and that Interest shall be payable thereon from the 15th May 1804, and until the further directions of the Board, at the rate of three (3) per cent. per annum; and that a certificate be issued to the Registers in London, directing them to enter the aforesaid sum to the credit of the said parties, as soon as they shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the Board, for the sum of two thousand and ninety-eight Pounds sterling (£. 2,098.) or such sum as they shall bonâ fide receive on account of provisional interest."

TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet of Whitton Park in the County of Middlesex, Thomas Cockburn now of London Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis of Battersea Rise in the County of Surrey Esquire, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Cr ditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallajah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs, and the said Ameer, of the  ther part;" Send Greeting: Whereas the late firm of Messieurs Harrington and Company, of Madras in the East Indies, as assignees of the late Mr. J. G. Hubert, also formerly of Madras aforesaid, did become parties to the aforesaid Indenture, and thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: Now know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, having taking into consideration a Claim made by the said late firm of Messieurs Harrington and Company, on account of the said Mr. J. G. Hubert, upon his Highness the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, for the principal sum of two hundred Star Pagodas (S. P^s 200.), which, with the arrears of interest stated to be due thereon, amounted on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of two hundred and sixty-eight Star Pagodas (S. P^s 268.) or one hundred and seven Pounds and four Shillings sterling (£. 107. 4 s.); and having duly investigated the said Claim, according to the covenants, provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture, do find, That the consideration of the said Claim was the amount of a bill bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for two Pictures sold by the said J. G. Hubert to his Highness the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah: And we do further find, That the Pictures so sold to his Highness the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah are charged to his Highness as lascivious Pictures: And we do further find, That a binding contract cannot be founded on an immoral consideration, and that therefore nothing is due from the representatives of his Highness the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the representatives of the said J. G. Hubert on the ground of the said sale of lascivious Pictures or the debt claimed thereon: And we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That the said late firm of Messieurs Harrington and Company, as assignees aforesaid, and the representatives of the said J. G. Hubert, have no Claim on the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, in respect of the said Sale of Pictures or the debt claimed thereon: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of his Highness the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, and his successors or representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever in respect of the said sale of the said Pictures or the debt claimed thereon, at the instance of the said late firm of Messieurs Harrington and Company, as assignees aforesaid, or of any other person or persons whatsoever. IN further obedience to the Act of Parliament, we have likewise to state, That an application, with which we have complied, has been made to us by parties for a provisional allowance, upon security to refund and pay back the whole, or such part of the interest as, according to our final determinations, it shall appear they were not entitled to, in conformity to the 24th clause of the Deed of Agreement. As the Act of Parliament requires us to state the grounds of our decision in such cases as we have provisionally adjudicated, we present to this Honourable House, an Extract from our Proceedings of the determination which we have made upon the said application.

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the 12th February 1818.

Provisional Allowance to the Executors of Henry Dupuy, upon the Bonds assigned to him by the late Henry Price.

* Vide Ninth Report to Parliament, p. 387.

"RESUMED consideration of the two Bonds of the Nabob Wallajah, in favour of the late Henry Price, one for the sum of 353 Pagodas, the other for the sum of 162 Pagodas, both bearing date 1st September 1781, and by him assigned on the 29th March 1788, to Henry Dupuy of Madras, since deceased; first taken into consideration, with the other Bonds of the late Henry Price, on the 30th December 1812.

"It appears, by the Board's Minute of * December 30th, 1812, that the debt represented by these two, as well as by the other Bonds, under date September 1st, 1781, of the late Nabob Wallajah, in the name of the late Henry Price, is justly due and owing from the representatives of his said Highness; and as these Bonds were absolutely assigned and delivered over to or for the late Henry Dupuy by the said late Henry Price, the right of property in these Bonds is in the representatives of the late Henry Dupuy.

"As it appears, however, that the original Bonds are in India, the Board resolve, that instructions be sent to the Commissioners at Madras to transmit them to this country, and that, in the mean time, this claim be allowed and established provisionally, to George Clarke, Richard Walpole, and Thomas Plummer, executors of the late Henry Dupuy, as a debt in the First Class, agreeably to the statement of the Register.

"Resolved accordingly, That the aggregate sum of one thousand two hundred and sixteen Pagodas nineteen fanams and sixty-six cash (P^s 1,216. 19 f. 66 c.) or four hundred and eighty-six Pounds eleven Shillings and nine-pence sterling (£. 486. 11 s. 9 d.) shall be provisionally allowed and established in the First Class of Debts, upon the Claim made on the late Nabob Wallajah by the said George Clarke, Richard Walpole, and Thomas Plummer, executors of the late Henry Dupuy, as assignee of the late Henry Price.

"Resolved, That the sum of one thousand one hundred and fifty-five Pagodas twenty-seven fanams and nineteen cash (P^s 1,155. 27 f. 19 c.) or four hundred and sixty-two Pounds five Shillings and two-pence sterling (£. 462. 5 s. 2 d.) be and is hereby allowed and established provisionally in the First Class, in the names of George Clarke, Richard Walpole, and Thomas Plummer, executors aforesaid of the late Henry Dupuy, assignee as aforesaid; and that interest shall be payable thereon from the 15th day of May 1804, and until the further directions of the Board, at the provisional rate of 4 per cent. per annum; and that a certificate be issued to the Registers, directing them to enter the aforesaid sum to the credit of the said George Clarke, Richard Walpole, and Thomas Plummer, as soon as they shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Board for the sum of three hundred Pounds sterling (£. 300.) and shall have declared to the Board in writing whether it is their option to receive the Interest so payable on the sum which shall be so entered to their credit, in London, or at Madras.

"Resolved, That the sum of sixty Pagodas thirty-four fanams and forty-seven cash (P^s 60. 34 f. 47 c.) or twenty-four Pounds six Shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 24. 6 s. 7 d.) be and is hereby allowed and established provisionally in the joint names of Samuel Johnson and Charles Binny; and that Interest shall be payable thereon from the 15th day of May 1804, at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum; and that a certificate shall be issued to the Registers in London, directing them to enter the aforesaid sum to the credit of the said parties jointly, the trustees of Mr. Fordyce having already given security to the satisfaction of the Board, and having declared in writing that the sums which should be adjudicated in their favour should be entered in the books of the Registers in London."

Claimants.

IN reference to a Class of small Claims, already partially entered in the preceding Lists, but in number altogether about 10,000, in amount generally unspecified, and preferred principally for arrears of pay alleged to be due to the native servants and troops of their Highnesses the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, we have the honour to state, for the information of This Honourable House, that, with a view to prevent the continuance of the Commission to an indefinite period, we have at various times for some years past, called the particular attention of the East India Company and of the Creditors, to the consideration of measures for relieving us from the necessity of investigating this numerous Class of small Claims. The subject, we understand, is still under consideration.

Having decided absolutely on many Claims since the date of our last Report, we conceive the most proper manner of obeying the Act of Parliament, which requires us to state the grounds of such decision, is, to lay before This Honourable House, copies of the Awards which we have made.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet, and Thomas Cockburn Esquire, both of Manchester Buildings Westminster, being two of the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah, Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them, the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas Henry Smith of Drapers' Hall in the City of London, one of the executors of the late William Cook, brother and sole executor of the late John Cook, formerly commander of the Worcester East Indiaman, hath become party to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted himself, his heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by him under the said Indenture: Now Know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse and Thomas Cockburn, having taken into consideration a Claim made by the said Henry Smith, as one of the executors as aforesaid, upon the said Nabob Wallajah, for the value of certain saddlery goods stated to have been supplied to his said Highness, amounting to the principal sum of seven hundred and seventy-three Pounds six Shillings and sixpence sterling (£.773. 6s. 6d.); and having also taken into consideration a Claim made by the said Henry Smith, as one of the executors as aforesaid, upon the said late Ameer ul Omrah, for the principal sum of forty-six Pounds four Shillings and four-pence sterling (£.46. 4s. 4d.) as the value of two silver water-plates, purchased by the said late Ameer ul Omrah of him the said late John Cook; and having duly investigated the said Claims according to the covenants provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture, Do find, That the first Claim for the principal sum of seven hundred and seventy-three Pounds six Shillings and sixpence sterling (£.773. 6s. 6d.) made by the said Henry Smith, one of the executors as aforesaid, ought not to have been made on the said late Nabob Wallajah but on the Ameer ul Omrah, the said saddlery as well as the said silver plates, amounting to the sum of forty-six Pounds four Shillings and four-pence sterling (£.46. 4s. 4d.) having been sold to him the said Ameer, in the month of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven: And we do further find, upon making up the account of the said saddlery and silver plates, sold as aforesaid to the said Ameer ul Omrah, that on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the aggregate sum, principal and interest, of four thousand seven hundred and ninety-six Star Pagodas twenty-four fanams and forty cash (S. P^s 4,796. 24 f. 40 c.) or one thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds twelve Shillings and eight-pence sterling (£.1,918. 12s. 8d.) was and is justly due and owing from the representatives of the said late Ameer ul Omrah to the representatives of the said late Captain John Cook: And whereas it has been established to the satisfaction of this Board, that by allowing all such Claims as have been made by and may be found justly due and owing from the said late Ameer ul Omrah, the admissions to participate in the said fund in respect of the debts contracted by the said Ameer, will not exceed in amount the property belonging to him which passed on his death into the hands of the late Nabob Wallajah, and which otherwise would have been justly liable to the satisfaction of the debts of the said late Ameer; and therefore all such debts, agreeably to the directions of the seventh clause of the aforesaid Deed of Indenture, bearing date the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, are payable by the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah: Now Know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse and Thomas Cockburn do hereby Award and Adjudge, That on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the sum of four thousand seven hundred and ninety-six Star Pagodas twenty-four fanams and forty cash (S. P^s 4,796. 24 f. 40 c.) or one thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds twelve Shillings and eight-pence sterling (£.1,918. 12s. 8d.) was due and owing from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Captain John Cook; and that the said Henry Smith, one of the executors of the said late William Cook, sole executor of the said late Captain John Cook, hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of four thousand seven hundred and ninety-six Star Pagodas twenty-four fanams and forty cash (S. P^s 4,796. 24 f. 40 c.) or one thousand nine hundred and eighteen Pounds twelve Shillings and eight-pence sterling (£.1,918. 12s. 8d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic and the Ameer ul Omrah: And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt, being a debt contracted by his said late Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, is and shall be comprized in the Second Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That all the property and revenues of the said Ameer ul Omrah and the said Nabob Wallajah, and their successors and representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all Claim whatsoever in respect of the said Debts, them or either of them, or the demand or demands made on account thereof, at the instance of the said Henry Smith, one of the executors as aforesaid, or of any other person or persons whatsoever. In witness whereof, we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse and Thomas Cockburn, have hereunto set our hands, the sixth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come, We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet, and Thomas Cockburn Esquire, both of Manchester Buildings Westminster, being two of the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas the Honourable Hester Maria Johnston of Brompton in the County of Middlesex, widow and executrix of the late Samuel Johnston formerly of Madras in the East Indies, Richard Chase of Kensington-square in the said County of Middlesex, as trustee under assignments of the said late Samuel Johnston and others; and Oliver Colt of Halfmoon-street in the parish of Saint George's Hanover-square in the County of Middlesex, for himself and as executor of the late William Balfour and John Spalding, since deceased, formerly of Hill-street, in the aforesaid parish of Saint George's Hanover-square, in the County of Middlesex aforesaid, respectively became parties to the aforesaid Indenture, and thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Hester Maria Johnston, widow and executrix as aforesaid, Richard Chase, trustee as aforesaid, and Oliver Colt, for himself and as executor as aforesaid, and the late John Spalding, severally became parties to certain Articles of Agreement, bearing date the third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the first part; John Fordyce of Whitehall in the County of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the persons therein named as Trustees, of the third part; and thereby transferred and assigned over to the said Trustees, one-twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to them the said Hester Maria Johnston, widow and executrix as aforesaid, the said Richard Chase, as trustee as aforesaid, the said Oliver Colt, for himself and as executor as aforesaid, and the said John Spalding as aforesaid, since deceased, from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot or the Ameer ul Omrah or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon, the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned upon the trusts in the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Moubray, Charles Binny, and Valentine Conolly, being the only trustees who are parties to the said Articles of Agreement, are also parties to the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture in all things whatsoever relating to the several claims made by them under the said Indenture: Now Know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse and Thomas Cockburn, having taken into consideration a claim, number one (N^o 1.) made by the said Hester Maria Johnston, widow and executrix as aforesaid, upon the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, for the balance upon ten bonds of his said Highness, each bearing date the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in favour of the said late Samuel Johnston; find, That the Debt constituted by the said Bond of the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, consisted in part of arrears of pay due to the said late William Marshall, as captain of the ship Crescent, in the service of the said Nabob, and in part of monies expended in necessary repairs on the said ship: And we do further find, That the said William Marshall borrowed on Bond, dated the eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, of the said John De Fries and Edward Watts, as administrators of the said late John Hall, the sum of three hundred and ninety-six Star Pagodas nine fanams and sixty cash (S. P^s 396. 9f. 60 c.) with interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the aforesaid day and date: And we do further find, That the said William Marshall deposited the said Bond of the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah with him the said John De Fries, as acting administrator as aforesaid, and made it a security for the payment of the debt of him the said William Marshall to the said John De Fries and Edward Watts, as administrators as aforesaid: And we do further find, That the aggregate sum, principal and interest, due on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, from the representatives of his Highness the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the representatives of the said late William Marshall and his assigns, was six thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight Star Pagodas twenty-three fanams and sixty-one cash (S. P^s 396. 9f. 60 c.) the amount principal of the said Bond of the said William Marshall to the said John De Fries and Edward Watts, administrators as aforesaid, with interest, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum thereon to the day and date when the whole shall be discharged; and that the said William Douglas Brodie hath and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of six thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight Star Pagodas twenty-three fanams and sixty-one cash (S. And whereas conformably to the said recited Agreement, the sum of eight thousand and twelve Star Pagodas fourteen fanams and sixty cash (S. P^s 8,012. 14f. 60c.) or three thousand two hundred and four Pounds eighteen Shillings and ten-pence sterling (£. 3,204. 18s. 10d.) was accordingly reserved from the said Award: And whereas in and by the said Deed or Instrument purporting to be an Indenture of three parts, bearing date as aforesaid, the thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between the said Samuel Johnston, of the first part; and the said Oliver Colt, in his own right, and the said Oliver Colt and Robert Balfour, as executors of the said William Balfour, deceased, of the second part; and Henry Sewell, since deceased, and the said Richard Chase, merchants, of Madras, of the third part; reciting (among other things) that he, the said Samuel Johnston, had assigned over upon certain trusts and conditions to the said Henry Sewell and the said Richard Chase, the said Bonds so granted to him by his Highness the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah; it was further agreed by and between the said several parties, that whenever the said sums, secured by the said Bonds, or any part of the same should be received from his said late Highness, or from his revenues or effects, they the said Henry Sewell and Richard Chase, should well and truly pay and satisfy to the said Oliver Colt and Robert Balfour, in the several rights aforesaid, a share of such payments or sums so to be received upon the said Bonds proportioned to the amount of such their interest and right therein as aforesaid, the said amount being taken in the proportion of thirty-five thousand Pagodas (P^s 35,000.) to the remainder of the aggregate principal of the said Bonds: And whereas, The said Henry Sewell and the said Richard Chase, have never accepted the Trusts in the said Instrument set forth: Now Know ye, That we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, having taken into consideration the further Claim so made before us by the said Oliver Colt, for himself and for his said late Partners, in conformity with the said Agreement, dated the sixteenth day of July in this present year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, together with the statements laid before us in support of the same, by or on behalf of the said Oliver Colt, for himself and his said late Partners; and also the statements made by or on behalf of the said Hester Maria Johnston; and having referred to the original Accounts on which the Bonds of his said late Highness Omdut ul Omrah were granted, for the balance of which the several Claims were made as aforesaid, Do find, That the said late Samuel Johnston, and the former firm of Balfour, Spalding and Colt, merchants and co-partners at Madras aforesaid, were jointly interested in certain Tunkhas granted by his Highness the said late Nabob Wallajah: And we do further find, That the firm of Colt, Baker, Day and Company, merchants and co-partners of Madras aforesaid, attornies of the said Oliver Colt, and of the said John Spalding, and of the executors of the late William Balfour, did by a certain Instrument, dated the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, authorize and empower the said, late Samuel Johnston to include in the settlement of his own Claims on the late Nabob then pending, the Claims of the said Oliver Colt, and of the executors of the said William Balfour, in respect of the said Tunkhas: And we do further find, That under and by virtue of the authority so granted to the said Samuel Johnston, a settlement on the said Tunkhas did accordingly take place; and that the amount admitted to be due thereon by the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, eldest son and successor of his said late Highness the Nabob Wallajah, was stated as a distinct item in the before-mentioned original account, on which the said Bonds of his said Highness Omdut ul Omrah were granted to the said late Samuel Johnston: And we do further find, That the said item so included, amounted on the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to seventy-three thousand and ten Pagodas sixteen fanams and forty-five cash (P^s 73,010. 16f. 45c.); and that the said sum formed a component part of the Bonds for two hundred and eighty-one thousand five hundred and ten Pagodas nine fanams and ten cash (P^s 281,510. 9f. 10c.) granted as aforesaid by the said Nabob to the said Samuel Johnston, in liquidation of all his Claims; and having set aside the said Bonds, and opened up the accounts on which they were granted, and made up a new account of the said transactions by striking out the usurious and compound interest included in the said item, and reducing the interest to five (5) per cent. per annum, agreeably to the principles of the Deed of Indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five; we do further find, That instead of seventy-three thousand and ten Pagodas sixteen fanams and forty-five cash (P^s 73,010. 16f. 45c.) stated as being due on the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, there was justly due and owing on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, from the representatives of their Highnesses the said late Nabobs Wallajah and Omdut ul-Omrh, to the representatives of the said late Samuel Johnston on his own account, and on account of the late firm of Messieurs Balfour, Spalding and Colt, and their assigns, twenty-six thousand three hundred and twenty-two Star Pagodas twenty fanams and sixty-five cash (S. P^s 26,322. 20f. 65c.) or ten thousand five hundred and twenty-nine Pounds sterling (£. 10,529.): And we do further find, That deducting the commission assigned by the said parties severally to the Trustees of the late John Fordyce, and already separately awarded to them in the aforesaid Award, twenty-five thousand and six Star Pagodas fifteen fanams and forty-five cash (S. P^s 25,006. 15f. 45c.) or ten thousand and two Pounds and eleven Shillings sterling (£. 10,002. 11s.) and no more, was justly due and owing to the late Samuel Johnston on his own account, and on account of the said late firm of Balfour, Spalding and Colt: And we do further find, That the sum of eleven thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven Star Pagodas twenty-seven fanams and twenty cash (S. P^s 11,987. 27f. 20c.) or four thousand seven hundred and ninety-five Pounds one Shilling and two-pence sterling (£. 4,795. 1s. 2d.) in the Second Class, already awarded to Oliver Colt for himself and his late partners, as per our aforesaid Award, was and is the full and just proportion due to the said Oliver Colt for himself and his late partners, upon the aforesaid aggregate sum of ten thousand five hundred and twenty-nine Pounds sterling (£. 10,529.) found due upon the item in Claim, in which the said late Samuel Johnston and the said Oliver Colt, and his said late partners were jointly interested; but in reference to the submission made to us by the aforesaid Agreement of the sixteenth day of July in this present year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, We do further find, That certain sums were received in cash by the said late Samuel Johnston from his said late Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, or from his revenues or effects, of which no part was paid over to the said Oliver Colt, or to his said late partners, them or either of them; and on taking into consideration the difference in value between Carnatic stock, bearing interest at three (3) per cent. per annum, and money on the proportion to which the said Oliver Colt and his said late partners, the said late William Balfour and the said late John Spalding, were entitled in respect of the cash paid in part discharge of the said debt; we do further find, that the sum of seven hundred and fourteen Star Pagodas fourteen fanams and thirty cash (S. P^s 7,298. 30c.) or two thousand nine hundred and nineteen Pounds four Shillings and one penny sterling (£. 2,919. 4s. 1d.) is justly due and owing to the said Hester Maria Johnston, widow and executrix as aforesaid: And we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That the said Hester Maria Johnston, as executrix as aforesaid of the said Samuel Johnston, is entitled to the said sum of seven thousand two hundred and ninety-eight Star Pagodas and thirty cash (S. As the Act of Parliament requires us to state the grounds of our Decision in such cases as we have provisionally adjudicated, we present to this Honourable House. Extracts from our Proceedings of the Determination which we have made upon the said application.

her (and others) as Executrix of her late Husband,
Henry Sewell,
Assignee of Valentine Conolly.

"HAVING reviewed the whole proceedings in this case, we are of opinion, from the evidence and documents now before us, that the legal title to the Nabob's Bond in claim is vested in the legal representative of the late Henry Sewell; and we have resolved, with a view to prevent waste of property, to establish provisionally the amount that shall be found due upon the Bond, as being probably just and allowable, in the name of Mrs. Rebecca Sewell, executrix of the late Henry Sewell, under the prescribed securities, but subject to further investigation in India."

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the 5th May 1818.

"IN the proceedings of the Board of the 5th March last, it was resolved, that the legal title to the Debt under the bond of Omdut ul Omrah to Valentine Conolly, under date 1st January 1798, claimed by Mrs. Rebecca Sewell, widow and executrix of the late Henry Sewell, assignee of the said Valentine Conolly, and also claimed by Collah Singana Chitty, assignee of Messieurs Chase, Chinnery, Macdowal and Company, appeared to be vested in the legal representatives of the said Henry Sewell, and that, with a view to prevent loss of property, it was further resolved to establish provisionally the amount that should be found due thereon in the name of Mrs. Rebecca Sewell, executrix of the late Henry Sewell, under the prescribed securities, but subject to further investigation in India.

"Resolved accordingly, That the sum of fifteen thousand one hundred and twelve Pagodas (P^s 15,112.) or six thousand and forty-four Pounds and sixteen Shillings sterling (£. 6044. 16s.) being a portion of the amount found to be probably just and allowable in the First Class of Debts, shall be and is hereby provisionally allowed and established as a Debt in the First Class, in the name of the said Rebecca Sewell, as executrix of the late Henry Sewell, and that interest shall be payable thereon from the fifteenth day of May 1804, and until the further directions of the Board, at the provisional rate of four (4) per cent. per annum, and that a certificate be issued to the Registers, directing them to enter the aforesaid sum to the credit of the said Rebecca Sewell, as soon as she shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Board, for the sum of four thousand four hundred Pounds (£. 4,400.) and shall have declared to the Board in writing, by herself or her agent, whether it be her option to receive the interest so payable on the sum which shall be so entered to her credit, in London or at Madras.

"Resolved, That the sum of three hundred and ninety-seven Pagodas twenty-eight fanams and fifty-eight cash (P^s 397. 28f. 58c.) or one hundred and fifty-nine Pounds one shilling and five-pence three farthings sterling (£. 159. 1s. 5½d.) being a further portion of the amount found to be probably just and allowable in the First Class of Debts, shall be and is hereby allowed and established provisionally in the name of James King, (one of the executors of John Fordyce, assignee of the said Rebecca Sewell, executrix of the said Henry Sewell,) and that interest shall be payable thereon from the fifteenth May 1804, and until the further directions of the Board, at the rate of four (4) per cent. per annum; and that a certificate shall be issued to the Registers in London, directing them to enter the aforesaid

The Aggregate Sterling Amount of the CLAIMS, specified in the Lists formerly presented to This Honourable House, and in this continuation, as nearly as can be calculated from the imperfect manner in which many of the Claims are stated, is - - - - - } £. 30,065,285. 0. 0.

IN our last Report, we noticed, for the information of This Honourable House, that, “with a view to prevent the continuance of the Commission to an indefinite period, we had, at various times, for some years past, called the particular attention of the East India Company, and of the Creditors, to the consideration of measures for relieving us from the necessity of investigating a numerous Class of small Claims,” we have now the honour to report to This Honourable House, that the Court of Directors of the East India Company, transmitted to us, on the 15th of July 1819, the copy of a dispatch, bearing date the 30th June preceding, which, they informed us, they had, in reference to the attainment of this object, addressed to the Governor in Council at Fort Saint George.

Having decided absolutely on many Claims since the date of our last Report, we conceive that the most proper manner of obeying the Act of Parliament, which requires us to state the grounds of such decision, is, to lay before This Honourable House, copies of the Awards which we have made.

and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas Dame Eliza, wife of Sir William Cockburn, Baronet, of Bath, in the County of Somerset, and executrix of Major Charles Rumley, formerly of Madras, in the East Indies, hath become parties to the aforesaid Indenture, and hath thereby submitted the estate of the said late Major Charles Rumley to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by her under the said Indenture: And whereas the said Eliza Cockburn, executrix as aforesaid, hath become party to certain Articles of Agreement, bearing date the third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, between several persons describing themselves as Creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the first part; John Fordyce, of Whitehall, in the county of Middlesex, since deceased, of the second part; and the persons therein named as trustees, of the third part; and hath thereby transferred and assigned over to the said trustees, one-twentieth part of every debt or sum of money owing to her from their Highnesses the late Nabobs of Arcot or the Ameer ul Omrah, or from any one of them, and of the interest to accrue thereon; the said one-twentieth part to be taken upon the sum at which the principal and interest of the said debt shall be liquidated or made up, to receive and hold the said one-twentieth part so thereby to them assigned, upon the trusts in the said Articles of Agreement mentioned and set forth: And whereas George Moubray, Charles Binny and Valentine Conolly, being the remaining trustees who have executed the said Articles of Agreement, have also executed the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and have thereby submitted themselves, their heirs executors and administrators, to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the said Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them under the said Indenture: And whereas it was found, as per Award number three hundred and seventeen (N° 317), passed on the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that the said Major Charles Rumley, at different dates advanced and became security for various sums to or on account of his Highness the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, but that in the aggregate amount alleged by the said Eliza Cockburn, executrix as aforesaid, to have been so advanced by the said Major Charles Rumley, there were included items to the amount of twelve thousand eight hundred and seven Pagodas (P^s 12,807), upon which the Board did not deem it fitting to decide without further evidence and a further reference to India, and which were therefore excepted from the Award aforesaid: Now Know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse and Robert Harry Inglis, having investigated the items composing the said sum of twelve thousand eight hundred and seven Pagodas (P^s 12,807) according to the covenants, provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five; P^s 29,513. 3½a.), or as charged in the Schedule in Star Pagodas, thirty two thousand four hundred and sixty-four Star Pagodas twenty-three fanams and fifty-five cash (S. P^s 32,464. 23f. 55c.), which with arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of ninety-nine thousand eight hundred and two Star Pagodas fourteen fanams and seventy cash (S. P^s 99,802. 14f. 70c.) or thirty-nine thousand nine hundred and twenty Pounds two Shillings and seven-pence halfpenny sterling (£.39,920. 2s. 7½d.) subject to the deduction of a certain proportion of the sum credited as hereinbefore by the Claimant on the aggregate of the bonds and accounts comprehended in his Schedule, which proportion proportion appears to be on this item the sum of seventeen thousand three hundred and fifty-two Star Pagodas thirty-eight fanams and forty-one and one half cash (S. P^s 17,352. 38 f. 41½ c.) or six thousand nine hundred and forty-one Pounds three Shillings and Sixpence halfpenny sterling (£. 6,941. 3s. 6½ d.). And we do further find, That the consideration of the said bond was advances of money bonâ fide made to or for the said late Nabob Wallajah, by or on account of Pool Pool Bagavanloo of Madras aforesaid, but that the said bond was taken in the name of Antonio De Souza also of Madras aforesaid, by desire of the said Pool Pool Bagavanloo, and was assigned by the said Antonio De Souza, also by desire of the said Pool Pool Bagavanloo to the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, in part payment of a debt due by the said Pool Pool Bagavanloo to the said Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar: And we do further find, That upon setting aside the said Bond as containing interest, and making up agreeably to the covenants provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, a new account of the said advances and of the repayments thereon, on the part of the said late Nabob Wallajah, the aggregate sum, principal and interest, due on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, from the representatives of his said late Highness to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, assignee as aforesaid, was eighty-one thousand three hundred and sixty-one Star Pagodas twelve fanams and forty-six cash (S. P^s 81,361. 12 f. 46 c.) or thirty-two thousand five hundred and forty-four Pounds ten shillings and five-pence sterling (£. 32,544. 10s. 5d.). And we do further find, That the second item of the Claim preferred in England as aforesaid, being for the principal sum of thirty-six thousand three hundred Star Pagodas (S. P^s 36,300), which with arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, is stated according to the Schedule of the said Claim, to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of ninety-eight thousand and twenty-eight Star Pagodas five fanams and forty cash (S. P^s 98,028. 5 f. 40 c.) or thirty-nine thousand two hundred and eleven Pounds four shillings and eleven-pence three farthings sterling (£. 39,211. 4s. 11¾ d.) as founded on the same transactions only, and cannot therefore be sustained as a distinct and separate Claim, being already comprehended in the Schedule of the Claim made at Madras under item number three (N^o 3) on which we have already found due the sum hereinbefore mentioned and no more: And we do further find, That the fourth item of the Claim preferred in India, is founded on the balance of an alleged account current between Nizamuddeen Ahmud Khan of the East Indies, since deceased, and the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, which said balance is stated to have been fixed at the sum of nineteen thousand one hundred and sixty-six Star Pagodas six fanams and seventy-one cash (S. P^s 19,166. 6 f. 71 c.) on the fourteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and which with arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of fifty-one thousand nine hundred and seventeen Star Pagodas thirty-eight fanams and sixty-one cash (S. P^s 51,917. 38 f. 61 c.) or twenty thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven Pounds two shillings and ten-pence sterling (£. 20,767. 2s. 10d.) subject to the deduction of a certain proportion of the sum credited as hereinbefore, by the Claimant in the aggregate of the bonds and accounts comprehended in his Schedule, which proportion appears to be on this item the sum of nine thousand and twenty-seven Star Pagodas sixteen fanams and twenty-eight and one quarter cash (S. P^s 9,027. 16 f. 28¼ c.) or three thousand six hundred and ten Pounds nineteen shillings and two-pence three farthings sterling (£. 3,610. 19s. 2¼ d.). And we do further find, That the said balance is founded on certain items alleged to have been advanced by the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar to other persons on account of the said late Nabob Wallajah, and on the balances of certain alleged previous transactions carried on with his said late Highness by the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, and on interest thereon: And we do further find, That it doth not appear that the said late Nabob Wallajah gave any sanction to the said advances to other persons, as on his account: And we do further find, That the said balances comprehended interest, and that on account of the said transactions, certain payments were made to the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, and that on making up the account agreeably to the covenants provisions and directions of the aforesaid Indenture, nothing is due from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, in respect of the fourth item of the Claim as aforesaid: And we do further find, That the fifth and last item of the Claim preferred in India, is founded on a Bond for a lac of Star Pagodas (S. P^s 1,00,000.) granted on the ninth Zeehij, of the year eleven hundred and ninety-three of the Hegyra, by the said late Nabob Wallajah, to the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar: And we do further find, That the consideration alleged to have been advanced to or for his said late Highness by the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, in part of the said bond, is sixty-seven thousand nine hundred Star Pagodas (S. P^s 67,900) which said sum with the arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, is stated to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of one hundred and eighty-eight thousand three hundred and eighty-eight Star Pagodas twenty-four fanams and sixty cash (S. P^s 188,388. 24 f. 60 c.) or seventy-five thousand three hundred and fifty-five Pounds eight shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 75,355. 8s. 6d.) subject to the deduction of a certain proportion of the sum credited as hereinbefore by the Claimant on the aggregate of the bonds and accounts comprehended in his Schedule, which proportion appears to be on this item the sum of thirty-two thousand seven hundred and fifty-six Star Pagodas seven fanams and twenty-seven and one-half cash (S. P^s 32,756. 7 f. 27 c.) or thirteen thousand one hundred and two Pounds nine shillings and nine-pence half-penny sterling (£.13.102. 9s. 9½d.): And we do further find, That the third item of the Claim preferred in England is also founded on the said Bond for one lac of Star Pagodas (S. P^a 1,00,000) being for the total principal of the said Bond with arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, amounting in the whole, according to the Schedule of the said Claim, on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the sum of two hundred and seventy thousand and fifty Star Pagodas (S. P^a 270,050) or one hundred and eight thousand and twenty Pounds sterling (£.108,020): And we do therefore further find, having reference to the Claim made in India as aforesaid, That the said item included in the Schedule preferred in England, cannot be sustained as a separate and distinct Claim: And we do further find, That on making up the account of the said advances on the said Bond for a lac of Star Pagodas (S. P^a 1,00,000) under date as aforesaid, and on certain previous transactions agreeably to the covenants, provisions and directions of the aforesaid Deed of Indenture of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, the aggregate sum, principal and interest, due on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, was one hundred and four thousand one hundred and twenty-two Star Pagodas thirty-four fanams and fifty-eight cash (S. P^a 104,122. 34 f. 58 c.) or forty-one thousand six hundred and forty-nine Pounds two Shillings and seven-pence halfpenny sterling (£.41,649. 2s. 7½d.): And we do further find, That the fourth item of the Claim preferred in England, is for the sum of sixteen thousand Star Pagodas (S. P^a 16,000) which with arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, is stated, according to the Schedule of the said Claim, to amount on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of forty-three thousand two hundred and eight Star Pagodas (S. P^a 43,208) or seventeen thousand two hundred and eighty-three pounds and four shillings sterling (£.17,283. 4s.): And we do further find, That the said sum of sixteen thousand Star Pagodas (S. P^a 16,000) is stated to be founded on the balance due, on or about the fifteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, on certain previous transactions carried on by the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar with and on account of the said late Nabob Wallajah: And we do further find, That the said balance has been fully discharged and satisfied, and that nothing is due thereon from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar: And we do further find, That the last item of the Claim preferred in England, is for the sum of nine hundred and fifteen Star Pagodas twenty-five fanams and forty cash (S. P^a 915. 25 f. 40 c.) or three hundred and sixty-six Pounds four Shillings and ten-pence sterling (£.366. 4s. 10d.) alleged to be balance of interest due on a general account, on the twenty-eight day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty: And we do further find, That in respect to the said item nothing is due from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar: And we do further find, That the representations made as aforesaid, on the part of the said William Douglas Brodie, and of the said William Fairlie and John Innes, in respect to the Claim hereinbefore mentioned, to one-twentieth of the sum which might be found due from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, the said Claim being alleged as aforesaid to rest on a certain deed from Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, grandson of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, to the said William Douglas Brodie, do require further investigation; and the amount of the said Claim is therefore withdrawn from the present Award: And we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That in respect of the third item and to the fifth item of the Claim preferred in India, the aggregate sum of one hundred and eighty-five thousand four hundred and eighty-four Star Pagodas five fanams and twenty-four cash (S. P^a 185,484. 5 f. 24 c.) or seventy-four thousand one hundred and ninety-three Pounds thirteen Shillings and one halfpenny sterling (£.74,193. 13s. 0½d.) and no more, was on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, due and owing to the legal representative or representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar: And we do further Award and Order, That the said debt being a debt contracted for money advanced to or for his said late Highness the Nabob Wallajah, prior to the twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, is and shall be comprised in the First Class of Debts under the said Indenture: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That the sum of one hundred and sixty-six thousand nine hundred and thirty-five Star Pagodas twenty-nine fanams and seventy-eight cash (S. P^a 166,935. 29 f. 78 c.) or sixty-six thousand seven hundred and seventy-four Pounds five Shillings and nine-pence halfpenny sterling (£.66,774. 5s. 9½d.) being a portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the legal representative or representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar; and that the legal representative or representatives as aforesaid, hath, have and shall have, right to participate to the amount of the said sum of one hundred and sixty-six thousand nine hundred and thirty-five Star Pagodas twenty-nine fanams and seventy-eight cash (S. P^a 166,935. 29 f. 78 c.) or sixty-six thousand seven hundred and seventy-four Pounds five Shillings and nine-pence halfpenny sterling (£.66,774. 5s. 9½d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, and that the sum of nine thousand two hundred and seventy-four Star Pagodas eight fanams and fifty-three cash (S. P^a 9,274. 8 f. 53 c.) or three thousand seven hundred and nine Pounds thirteen Shillings and seven-pence halfpenny sterling (£.3,709. 13s. 7½d.) being a further portion of the said debt, is due and owing to the said Samuel Johnson and

Charles

Charles Binny, as assignees aforesaid; and that the said Samuel Johnson and Charles Binny have and shall have right to participate to the amount of the said sum of nine thousand two hundred and seventy-four Star Pagodas eight fanams and fifty-three cash (S. P^a 9,274. 8 f. 53 c.) or three thousand seven hundred and nine Pounds thirteen Shillings and seven pence halfpenny sterling (£. 3,709. 13 s. 7½ d.) in the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic: And we do further Award and Order, That the sum of nine thousand two hundred and seventy-four Star Pagodas eight fanams and fifty-three cash (S. P^a 9,274. 8 f. 53 c.) or three thousand seven hundred and nine Pounds thirteen Shillings and seven-pence halfpenny sterling (£. 3,709. 13 s. 7½ d.) being the remainder of the said debt, shall for further investigation be reserved and excepted from this present Award, and it is hereby reserved and excepted accordingly: And we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby further Award and Adjudge, That in respect to the second and third items of the Claim preferred in England, amounting on the aggregate, according to the statement hereinbefore made, to the sum of three hundred and sixty-eight thousand and seventy-eight Star Pagodas five fanams and forty cash (S. P^a 368,078. 5 f. 40 c.) or one hundred and forty-seven thousand two hundred and thirty-one Pounds four Shillings and eleven-pence three farthings sterling (£. 147,231. 4 s. 11¾ d.) nothing is due from the representatives of the said late Nabob Wallajah to the representatives of the said late Coovoor Videnatha Moodelliar, the said second and third items of Claim having originated respectively in the same transactions with the third and fifth items of the Claim preferred in India, and having in consequence been hereinbefore respectively awarded: And we do further Award and Adjudge, That in respect to the fourth item of the Claim preferred in England, amounting, as is hereinbefore stated, to the sum of forty-three thousand two hundred and eight Star Pagodas (S. CLAIM N° 1,436 in our Fifth Report.

TO all to whom these Presents shall come, We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet, Thomas Cockburn Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis Esquire, all of Manchester Buildings Westminster, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas, by Award number three hundred and fifty-three (N° 353) under our hands, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-six Star Pagodas twenty-eight fanams and seventy-four cash (S. P^s 14,986. 28 f. 74 c.) or five thousand nine hundred and ninety-four Pounds thirteen shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 5,994. 13 s. 6 d.) was the proportion found due on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, in the second class of debts upon a Bond bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, granted by his Highness the late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, in the name of Cassenade Tawker formerly of the East Indies, for the principal sum of twenty thousand seven hundred and seventy Star Pagodas (S. P^s 20,770) and claimed by Rajaswarah Pundah (since deceased) as attorney to Visvanada Tawker and Vencatasa Tawker, sons and heirs of the said late Cassenade Tawker: And whereas it appears by the said Award, that the said sum was deducted from the aggregate of that Award, on the ground that the right of the party claiming it required further investigation: Now know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, having further investigated the said Claim so reserved for the purpose as aforesaid, do find, That on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the said sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-six Star Pagodas twenty-eight fanams and seventy-four cash (S. P^s 14,986. 28 f. 74 c.) or five thousand nine hundred and ninety-four Pounds thirteen shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 5,994. 13 s. 6 d.) was justly due and owing from the representatives of his Highness the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the legal representative or representatives of the said Cassenade Tawker; and we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That the aggregate sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-six Star Pagodas twenty-eight fanams and seventy-four cash (S. TO all to whom these Presents shall come: We, Sir Benjamin Hobhouse Baronet, Thomas Cockburn Esquire, and Robert Harry Inglis Esquire, all of Manchester Buildings, Westminster, being the Commissioners and Referees acting in England for the time being, under a certain Deed indented and bearing date the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and five, "between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part; and the several Persons whose hands and seals are thereto set and affixed, and who respectively are or claim to be Creditors of his Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot and of the Carnatic, eldest son and successor of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of his Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the second son of his said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or one of them the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, of the other part;" Send Greeting: Whereas, Messieurs Harington and Company, of Madras in the East Indies, as attornies of Colonel Colin Macaulay, late of Madras aforesaid, have become parties to the aforesaid Indenture, and have thereby submitted the Claim of the said Colonel Colin Macaulay to the judgment, award, order and determination of the Commissioners under the aforesaid Indenture, in all things whatsoever relating to the several Claims made by them as aforesaid under the said Indenture: Now Know ye, That we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, having taken into consideration a Claim made by the said Messieurs Harington and Company, attornies as aforesaid, founded on a Bond stated to be from his Highness the late Nabob Wallajah, in the name of Colonel Colin Macaulay, bearing date the sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, for the principal sum of five thousand Star Pagodas (S. P^s 5,000), which, with the arrears of interest alleged to be due thereon, amounted on the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of three thousand three hundred and ninety-two Pounds thirteen Shillings and one penny sterling (£.3,392. 13s. 1d.), do find, That the said Colonel (now Major General) Colin Macaulay was not in India at the period when the said Bond is alleged to have been granted, and that, on seeing the notice of it published in the Madras Gazette, he wrote to the Commissioners then acting at Madras under the aforesaid Deed of the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, by whose order the aforesaid notice was published, and stated that he made no such Claim, and desired that it might be withdrawn: And we do further find, That the said Major General Colin Macaulay hath in his examination before us this day, deposed as follows: "I now beg leave again to withdraw the Claim, my name having been used in the Bond without my knowledge or consent, and I never having had any interest or concern directly or indirectly in the transaction:" And we do therefore find, That nothing is due from the representatives of his Highness the said late Nabob Wallajah to the said Messieurs Harington and Company, as attornies of the said Colonel (now Major General) Colin Macaulay, or to the said Major General Colin Macaulay, on account of the said Bond or the debt claimed thereon: And we do further find, That there were money transactions carried on about the date of the said Bond, between his said late Highness and a certain other person, described in one of his Highness's Durbar records, as a Mr. Macaulay, who is said to have been resident in Bengal: And we do further find, That it is stated in the said Durbar record, that the said transactions closed with the grant of a Bond, bearing date the sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two as aforesaid, and described, as is alleged on the face of it, to be for a voluntary gift: And we, the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn, and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby Award and Adjudge, That neither the said Messieurs Harington and Company, as attornies as aforesaid, nor the said Major General Colin Macaulay, have or hath any Claim on the fund provided by the aforesaid Indenture, for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, in respect of the said Bond or the debt claimed thereon. P^s 18,149. 12 c.) as a balance due upon a bond of his Highness the late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to Messieurs Pelling de Fries and Company, bearing date the fourteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, for the principal sum of twenty-five thousand Star Pagodas, (S. THE REPORT	- - - - -	p. 3

R E P O R T.

THE COMMITTEE to whom the PETITION of William Abbott, late of Madras in the East Indies, and Richard Arthur Maitland and Thomas Parry, of Madras aforesaid, and also the PETITION of several Creditors of the Banking House of Chase, Sewell and Company, of Madras in the East Indies, which were presented to The House upon the 25th day of June 1817, were referred;—HAVE examined the matters thereof, and agreed upon the following REPORT:

YOUR Committee have investigated the facts alledged in the Petitions referred to them, with as much attention as the shortness of the period during which they could probably expect to sit has allowed them to bestow; they have received the oral testimony of such persons as appeared capable, through the situations which they had holden in India, of affording information upon the matter in question; and they have received such further evidence as the Petitioners brought forward in support of their Petitions: But Your Committee think it their duty to state to the House, that upon some points material to the consideration of the case, they have not received from the East India House all the documentary evidence for which they had called, either at the desire of the Petitioners or upon their own view of the question.

The Committee nevertheless think it right to report to the House, the evidence which they have actually received, with their observations as to the degree in which the allegations of the Petitions are supported by that evidence.

The Act of Parliament in which this case originates, is correctly set forth in both the Petitions; and there is no doubt of certain advances, by way of loan, having been made by the Petitioners to the Nabobs of the Carnatic, within the period specified in the Petitions.

But it has not been made appear to your Committee that “it has been the practice of the Madras Government to promulgate, for public information, all Acts of Parliament which affected individuals residing under its jurisdiction.”

And although it is certainly true that the Act in question was not officially promulgated at Madras for a very considerable period after the day fixed for its commencement, its existence, and the general nature of its provisions, appear to have been publicly known at Madras early in April 1798; and your Committee are not satisfied of the truth of the allegation, in the Petition of the Creditors of Messrs. Chase and Co., that the Petitioners commenced and continued their transactions with the Nabob “ without being aware of the prohibitions of the Act,” or that the Petitioners Messrs. Abbott, Maitland and Parry, “ remained in perfect ignorance of the existence of the prohibitions of the Act,” until, as the Petition implies, it was officially promulgated on the 4th of December 1799; and in reference to an allegation of the last mentioned Petitioners, that “ although a new Court of Judicature was “ erected at Madras by virtue of the Act of 1797, yet the Madras “ Government did not publish the said Act, but only the Letters Patent “ constituting such Court of Judicature,” Your Committee believe that the title of the Act, which was, “ An Act for the better administration “ of justice at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and for preventing “ British subjects from being concerned in loans to the native Princes in “ India,” was set forth in those Letters Patent.

407. with

4 REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON PETITIONS OF

Upon these allegations however, with respect to the period and mode in which the Act was made known at Madras, Your Committee must observe, that they would not, in their opinion, if fully substantiated, have justified the interference of the Legislature prayed for, except so far as to relieve the Petitioners from any disabilities, created by the Act, which they may have incurred in consequence of the period allowed by the Legislature for its commencement in India having been too short; and Your Committee, considering that the Act received the Royal Assent on the 20th of July 1797, are certainly of opinion, that the interval between that day and the 1st of December 1797, being only four months and eleven days, was a period within which it was scarcely possible that the existence of the Act should have been known, still less that a copy of it should have been received at Madras.

Your Committee therefore suggest to the House, the equitableness of affording relief to the Petitioners in regard to such of their Loans as were made between the first of December 1797, and such later day as the House may deem it reasonable to fix: whether the 6th of April 1798, on which day it is certain that the Act was publicly known at Madras, would allow of too extensive an interval, Your Committee submit to the judgment of the House.

The circumstances of this case, however, to which Your Committee feel it more particularly incumbent upon them to call the attention of the House, are set forth in the respective Petitions in the following passages: in the Petition of the Creditors of Messrs. Chase and Co. it is alleged, that the advances for which they made engagements with the Nabob, were made “ for the purpose expressed in such engagements, of being paid into the Treasury of the East India Company “ at Madras, on account of the kists or contributions which his “ Highness had, by treaty with the said Company, agreed to pay by “ monthly instalments, for his proportion of the expenses of defending “ the Carnatic;” and “ that the said loans and advances were made “ openly and without any concealment, and were actually paid into “ the

“ the Company’s Treasury with the perfect knowledge of the Govern“ ment of Madras, but without the consent in writing required by the “ said Act, for which Messrs. Chase and Co. never applied, not being “ aware that the transaction of their House with the said Nabob came “ within the provision of the said Act.”

The Petition of Messrs. Abbott and Maitland, and Mr. Parry, contains an allegation, somewhat differently expressed, in regard to the concurrence of the Madras Government in their transactions :
 “ They continued” as they allege “ to advance, (with the perfect know“ ledge, as the Petitioners are informed and believe, of the Members “ of the Government of Madras,) large sums of money, at simple legal “ interest, to his Highness Omdut ul Omrah, the then Nabob of the “ Carnatic, as they had been accustomed to do, for the purpose of “ enabling him to fulfil his pecuniary engagements with the East India “ Company, for his proportion of the expenses of defending the

In reference to these allegations, the Committee examined Lord Harris and the Earl of Powis, who had been Governors of Madras during the period of these transactions, and also Mr. Chamier and the Honourable Basil Cochrane, who both filled official situations at Madras at the periods in question ; and upon the evidence of these persons, Your Committee must observe, that although it is clear that no consent was given by the Governor in Council to the advance of monies by the Petitioners to the Nabobs of the Carnatic, there does appear to have been, at least in regard to some of those advances, a degree of countenance, if not of encouragement, on the part of some of the members and officers of the Madras Government, to the practice of supplying the Nabob with the means of paying his kists to the East India Company, which might not unnaturally have led the parties concerned to suppose that their transactions with the Nabobs were virtually sanctioned by the authority whose peculiar duty it was, not only to discourage, but to punish offenders against the Act of Parliament.

And your Committee are strengthened in their opinion, that there is a prima facie case of this nature, by the written evidence which they have received, incomplete as it is, of the conduct of the Madras Government in regard to the Act of 1797. It appears that the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in forwarding that Act to the Governor in Council at Madras, directed that it should be “ made known as publicly as possible :” the Madras Government, whose attention, as is shown by other evidence before your Committee, had been recently called to the practice of making loans to the Nabob of the Carnatic, took no step in consequence of this direction, or any notice of it in their correspondence with the Court ; although it has been proved to the satisfaction of your Committee, that it was the custom of that government to promulgate all such matters of public interest as they were directed to publish by orders of the Court of Directors.

Your Committee are far from averring that the evidence before them is sufficient to establish the fact of conusance on the part of the Madras Government; but it is not unimportant to observe, that about the period of these transactions an unusual pecuniary exigency had arisen, in which, as it would appear, the punctual discharge of the Nabob's kists was a matter of considerable public importance;—a circumstance which, connected with the facts which have been mentioned in regard to the non-compliance with the Court's orders for publishing the provisions of the Act, affords some reason for believing that political reasons may have had some weight in producing the degree of countenance which appears to have been afforded to the loans to the Nabob. Your Committee are disposed to think that those who under such circumstances, bonâ fide, and without concealment, advanced their monies for the purpose of enabling the Nabob to make his payments to the government, have an equitable claim to consideration.

The House may perhaps be of opinion that it may be advisable, that in the ensuing session a Bill should be brought in, to allow the parties to bring evidence of the peculiar circumstances attending these loans, before the tribunal established, under the sanction of Parliament, for the adjudication of the debts of the Nabob.

In framing a Bill with this object, much care must undoubtedly be taken not to include in its relaxations any other loans than those which, in the strictest sense, come within the description to which your Committee has adverted. The Petitioners, according to their own statement, do not appear all to stand in the same predicament in this respect; but your Committee have thought it more fair to the Petitioners, under the circumstances of the acknowledged incompleteness of the evidence adduced, to abstain from reporting upon the peculiarities of each case, while they recommend the establishment, by the Bill, of a general principle of distinction.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE.

Martis, 26^o die Maii 1818.

Lord BINNING, in the Chair.

The Right Hon. George Lord Harris, called in; and Examined.

Lord Harris.

DURING what period was your Lordship governor of Madras?—From February to August 1798.

Do you recollect whether it was or was not the uniform practice of the Madras government, upon the arrival of an act of parliament from England, to notify it in public orders or otherwise to the settlement?—I never knew any such thing as issuing the acts of parliament there; I don't recollect any process of that kind from our board.

Was not that usage adopted, with regard to those acts of parliament affecting the Company's servants, or persons resident at the presidency?—I don't remember any acts of parliament at all being published; I don't remember ever issuing any directions of that kind; I do not remember any act being published; and as to whether it was the custom or not, I really don't know whether it was or was not; I don't think it was.

No such promulgation took place during your Lordship's time?—Not that I remember at all; nor do I remember seeing any order of the Company to that purpose; I don't recollect any.

Of course, your Lordship being in the chair for so limited a time, there might have been an usage of that sort antecedently prevalent, not adopted by your Lordship?—I don't know that there was not, but I cannot say that there was.

As your Lordship sat in council during a considerable time as commander-in-chief, do you recollect any such usage within that period?—Never; I never recollect any thing of that kind being advertized.

During the period of your being in the chair, do you know of the circumstance of British subjects being concerned in advancing money to the Nabob of Arcot?—I have heard of it often, as matter of conversation, but nothing more; I don't know it to be so; I have heard of it as common report, but it never struck me so forcibly as to take notice of it.

You are perfectly aware then that British subjects were in the habit of advancing money to the Durbar?—I have heard of such things, but I am not aware at all of it myself; I heard of it, in the same way as other things, occasionally.

Does your Lordship recollect any complaint concerning that practice having been sent home to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, from the Madras government, not merely while you were in the chair, but while you had a seat in council?—I remember very constantly complaints made against British subjects going into the country, and having intercourse with the Durbar, but I don't know any thing of the nature of that intercourse. I remember that the council always set their faces against it as much as possible, whilst I was in council; the whole time that I was commander-in-chief, and whilst I was in council, we always set our faces against the practices of that kind.

Whilst your Lordship sat in council, or in the chair, do you know of any loans or payments made by the house of Chase, Chinnery and Co., or any other European merchants, to the Nabob of Arcot, with the consent and privity of the government of Madras, either verbal or in writing?—No, I cannot charge my memory memory at all with any such thing. It is not probable I should have heard of it, unless during the time I was in the chair; I did not interfere as commander-in-chief; I did not meddle with the money matters; I might have heard of it, but I do not remember it.

Lord Harris.

Has your Lordship heard, or do you know of any loans from European merchants having been paid into the Company's treasury, in the name of the Nabob, for the discharge of his kists to the Company?—I know that the Nabob was a very bad paymaster, but I don't recollect by whose hands the money came. There were sums at times paid, but there was great difficulty in getting them paid. I don't recollect by whom they were paid, or how they came into the treasury.

The Nabob was continually in arrear?—The Nabob was very often in arrear.

The Nabob was urged for payment by the Company continually, when he was in arrear?—Yes, we did not spare him.

These loans that were advanced by individuals to the Nabob, might have been paid immediately into the Company's treasury, without their falling under your Lordship's immediate observation?—They might, but I don't know any thing about it; I have not the least knowledge at all of their being paid.

The Right Hon. Edward Earl of Powis, called in; and Examined.

AT what time was your Lordship president of the Madras government?—I was president of Madras from August 1798 to September 1803.

Earl of Powis.

Does your Lordship recollect whether it was the usage of the Madras government, upon the arrival of acts of parliament affecting the interests of residents at that settlement, to notify in general orders, or otherwise, those enactments or not?—I don't recollect any such usage of promulgating acts of parliament.

Though not within your Lordship's recollection at this moment, might not such have been the usage?—I rather think that if it had been the usage I should have been aware of it.

Your Lordship recollects the Nabob being backward in the payment of his kists?—At times he was.

Of course he was urged by the Madras government to the payment of his arrears?—Undoubtedly.

Was the circumstance of the Nabob being assisted with money by private individuals, a matter of perfect notoriety?—It was believed.

Had complaints of the prevalence of that practice been sent home?—I believe that will be best found upon the records. The period in question is so distant now that I cannot recollect; but I believe there are many complaints of that sort upon the records, and they will best speak to the fact.

Do you know of the payment of any sums of money, on behalf of the Nabob's kists, by any British individuals, immediately into the Company's treasury?—No; I cannot say that any such thing ever came to my knowledge. They may have been without my knowledge.

Does your Lordship recollect the house of Chase and Co. being considered at that time as the principal agents of the Nabob of Arcot?—I cannot say that I do; they may have been so.

Does your Lordship know of any consent ever being given by the government of Madras to loans from British individuals to the Nabob, for the purpose of paying his kists to the Company?—No; I have no memory of any such consent being given.

Has your Lordship ever been applied to for any consent of that sort?—Once by the Nabob himself.

What was your Lordship's answer to that application?—I must relate the transaction. A short time after Lord Wellesley's arrival at Madras, in 1799, the Nabob made a proposal through me, to Lord Wellesley, to advance three lacks of pagodas for the service of the war which we were then engaged in with Tippoo Sultan. This proposal was communicated to Lord Wellesley, and he permitted me to entertain it. In consequence of which, the Nabob confirmed his own proposal; but the result was, that of the three lacks of pagodas, his Highness only paid 16,000; and when urged to complete what he had promised, he pleaded poverty, and informed me that he could only perform what he had offered, by being permitted to have recourse to the assistance of Europeans. This, in conformity with the policy and principles of the government, was rejected.

When the Nabob applied for leave to have the assistance of British subjects towards this contribution, was he under any apprehension of his country being taken possession of by the Company?—Certainly.

By taking his country into possession, does your Lordship understand taking it into the management of the Company, as far as regards its revenues, during the war, or merely taking possession of some of his territories?—During the war, assuming the possession according to the treaty of 1792.

Mr. George Parkhouse, called in; and Examined:

*Mr.
George Parkhouse.*

YOU are from the Carnatic office?—Yes.

Have you got some papers, in pursuance of the order of this Committee?—Yes.

[Papers delivered in.]

John Chamier, Esq. called in; and Examined:

John Chamier, Esq.

YOU were secretary to the Madras government, and afterwards member of council?—Yes.

During what period?—I was secretary at different periods; in 1784, and 1800, and in 1801.

Were you secretary during the whole interval from 1784 to 1801?—No.

Were you secretary in the years 1798 and 1799?—No; I was secretary from 1784 to 1790; about six years and a half. I was afterwards otherwise employed. I went back to India in 1800.

Having been secretary of the Madras government, and afterwards also of the Madras council, you must have been perfectly conversant with the usages of that government; do you recollect whether it was not the usage of the Madras government, upon the arrival of acts of parliament affecting the interests of resident British subjects at the settlement, to notify, in public orders or otherwise, the substance of those enactments?—It was not usual to publish acts of parliament; but it was usual, when the letters from the Court of Directors arrived, to read them paragraph by paragraph, and to publish such orders as were necessary for general information, whether they proceeded from acts of parliament or other things. I never knew the whole of an act of parliament published, but I have known orders, emanating from an act of parliament, from the Court of Directors.

Did it not often occur, that the only intimation that arrived at Madras of enactments relative to India, passed in England, were communicated in the letters of the Court of Directors?—That might sometimes occur; but it frequently happened that individuals had acts of parliament sent to them from their agents in this country.

Was it not the practice of the Court of Directors, in your time, to send out copies of all the statutes to the government of Madras?—Yes.

Did you ever know of any instance yourself in which the Act itself was not sent out?—They are always sent out; all acts of parliament were sent out by the Court of Directors.

Do you recollect, in the transfer of English news from the English newspapers into the Madras newspapers, whether it was not usual to state the progress of acts of parliament relating to India?—I think it generally was.

Otherwise than, when any debate occurred in the House of Commons, by reprinting the report of the debate?—It was part of my duty, as secretary, to superintend the publication of the Government Gazette; of course nothing was published but what I sanctioned; nothing of that sort was generally put in, unless sanctioned and approved by me, if it was matter that interested India.

Do

PETITIONS OF CREDITORS OF NABOB OF THE CARNATIC. 11

Do you know of any consent having been given by the government of Madras to loans by British subjects to the Nabob of Arcot, for the purpose of being paid, on account of his kists, into the Company's treasury?—I should think not; the repeated orders of the Court of Directors were positively against it. I don't remember any sanction of government being given to such loans. John Chamier, Esq.

Do you think it likely, from the practice of the Madras government, when these orders came out from time to time, that they would have been published for the information of persons concerned at Madras?—Certainly they would.

Immediately on their arrival?—I have myself published a great many.

Does your evidence apply to any part of the period between 1797 and 1799?—Certainly it does not.

Your answer applies to standing orders that were in force equally between 1797 and 1799, does it not?—No doubt.

You speak from recollection of such orders having been sent out while you were secretary, antecedently to 1797?—Certainly.

Have you any doubt that those orders remained in force in 1797?—None whatever.

And were these orders repeated while you were yourself secretary years afterwards?—I cannot charge my memory with that; I have no doubt that they were not annulled, but I cannot say whether they were repeated; I don't recollect that.

Do you recollect whether the clause in the act prohibiting loans from British subjects to the native princes, did not pass at the original suggestion of the Madras government?—I do not recollect it, but I think it is very probable.

Luncæ, 1^o die Junii 1818.

THOMAS PEREGRINE COURTENAY, Esq. in the Chair.

The Honourable Basil Cochrane, called in; and Examined.

HOW long were you in the civil service at Madras?—Thirty-seven years and a half. The Hon. Basil Cochrane.

In what situation were you in at Madras when the transactions took place between Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. and the late Nabob of Arcot?—I was military paymaster at Fort St. George.

Do you know for what that contract was, under which Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. assisted the Nabob with money?—To enable the Nabob to pay the kists of the Company, or the regular contributions established by the Company.

What were they paid for?—For the support of the troops of the East India Company.

Were those troops then employed in the assistance of the Nabob, in the protection of the Nabob's own country?—They were.

The Committee understand you to say that these kists were paid as a contribution to the government at Madras by the Nabob, for the purpose of having his own country protected by them?—Certainly.

Can you state whether it was publicly known at that time that Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. were his Highness's bankers, and assisted him in paying the monthly instalments of kists to the government?—I myself did for several years assist Mr. Sewell with from 8,000 to 30,000 pagodas, every month that the kists became due, as a matter of friendship.

Mr. Sewell was a partner in the house of Chase, Sewell and Co. at that time?—He was; and one day, after the kists were paid, I happened to call upon Mr. Webbe, the secretary to the government, and after having spoken of the great distress distress of the government for cash, Mr. Webbe declared in my presence, and in the presence of Mr. Sewell, how much they were indebted to Mr. Sewell for the regularity with which he paid the kists; and added, you must have vast credit in the settlement to enable you to be so punctual.

*The Hon.

That is what Mr. Webbe said to Mr. Sewell in your presence?—Yes.

Did this happen more than once?—Only once.

About what time are you speaking to, or in what year was that?—I cannot recollect.

Was it in 1797, 1798 or 1799?—I really cannot recollect.

When did you quit Madras?—In 1806.

How long before that time was it?—I cannot exactly say; but Mr. Sewell died in 1801.

Was it two or three years before his death?—I fancy about twelve months; but I cannot immediately say, because when Mr. Webbe mentioned it, I think was in the time of the Company's greatest distress for cash; I think it was in 1798 or 1799, but it was during the Mysore war.

You have said, that it was at the time of the Company's greatest distress for cash; have you any means of judging whether the cash was raised for the purpose of assisting and supporting the Nabob?—Without it they could not have gone on.

You mean, unless the kists had been advanced by Mr. Sewell, the Company could not have enabled the troops to march, in the Mysore war, for the purpose of protecting the Nabob?—Yes; I can state the distress of the Company. Marquis Wellesley arrived at Madras in September 1798, previous to his going against Mysore, without one farthing of money. He called a meeting the day after, and declared he had come there without one farthing to enable him to go on with the war. The government was then in such distress for cash, that they advertized for bills on Calcutta; the current rate was 365 rupees per 100 pagodas; and drew bills for 170,000 pagodas, at the rate of 410 current rupees per 100 pagodas.

Can you, of your own knowledge, state the amount of interest paid by the Company at that time?—I can.

What was it that was paid?—Twelve per cent. interest.

Did they give any premium besides?—There was no premium upon that.

Can you, of your own knowledge, speak to the fact of any other persons, beside Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co., lending money to the Nabob for the purpose of paying his kists to the Company?—Yes; Messrs. Abbott and Maitland.

Do you know of any other persons?—I think Mr. Parry had transactions of the same nature about that time.

Was it publicly known that these gentlemen were lending money in the way you state?—It was publicly known; it was the common conversation at every table, how punctual Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. had been in their payments on account of the Nabob.

Are you able to state whether the government knew it or not?—I have heard all the members of the government speak generally how punctual they were in their payments, and what an immense credit they must have in the settlement.

You say all the members of the government; be so good as to name some of them. Who was the governor of Madras at the time?—Lord Powis, I believe.

When you heard this talked of publicly, was it at table; or where?—It was the subject of general conversation, what great credit they had in the settlement, and how punctual they were in their payments.

You say, this was generally talked of, with regard to Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co.?—Yes.

Was it confined to them, as bankers to the Nabob?—They were his great paymasters.

Was this frequently the subject of conversation; or did it happen only once?—It was the general topic, when I happened to meet with people who knew the circumstance; I have often heard it mentioned.

Do you mean the Committee to understand that these conversations passed in mixed companies, or that they were confidential among their friends?—In mixed companies.

How many persons might have been present at one time in those companies?—Perhaps half a dozen.

Persons

*The Hon.
Basil Cochrane.*

Persons holding situations in the government?—Yes; all who knew the transaction. The company was in such distress, that in January and February 1799, when a voluntary subscription was opened, to enable the army to take the field to march to Seringapatam, an Armenian merchant, who subscribed 5,000 pagodas for his share, sold the company's bonds, bearing interest at ten per cent at ten per cent discount, in order to raise money to pay into the Company's treasury, for which he received bonds at 12 per cent.

Must those persons, whom you have heard speak of the punctuality with which Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. made their payments, necessarily have known that the money so paid, was paid with the money of Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co.?—All were talking of the means and credit which Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. had in the settlement, to enable them to make these payments for the Nabob. I have often called at Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co's. office about five of clock in the afternoon of the day of closing the kists, six of clock being the hour fixed upon for the final settlement, and I have seen four and five native bankers, and various other European gentlemen, attending to know what money they wanted; some with 10,000, some with 20,000, and some with 30,000 pagodas in their hands in bank notes.

You have mentioned that Lord Powis was the governor of Madras during the period you are speaking of, and you say that the members of the government were aware of these transactions; have you any reason to suppose that Lord Powis knew of the loans being made by Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co.?—He must have known it from Mr. Webbe.

Had you ever any conversation with Lord Powis upon the subject?—No.

Who were the members of the government at the time?—Mr. Petrie was one.

Can you speak to any particular conversation with Mr. Webbe, or can you speak particularly to the conversation of any of the members of the government upon the subject?—I remember Mr. Petrie speaking, often and often, of the great credit of Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. in the settlement, and how exceedingly punctual they were; and I have often heard Mr. Webbe talk of it.

Who has the charge of the treasury?—The chief secretary of government is always the treasurer; therefore all payments come to him.

Was not Mr. Webbe considered as the principal organ of the government?—He was, in fact, both governor and council.

He was the moving principle at that time?—He was.

Were you aware of any act of parliament having been received in the month of September 1799, which prohibited native or other bankers at Madras from advancing money to the Nabob?—I heard of it, but as I never had any transactions with the Nabob, I never paid much attention to it; but it was a long time before there were any copies of the Act. I paid little attention to it, never having had transactions with the Nabob, and because I never would be agent with any persons having transactions with the Nabob.

What was your objection?—Because it was contrary to the act of parliament, and because I would not subject myself to a breach of the law.

Was it long before the Act was published that you heard of it?—I believe the Act came out in 1798, but I never saw a printed copy at that time.

To the best of your belief, was that the first time that you heard there was an act of parliament upon the subject?—It was some time in the year 1798; but I never saw a printed copy till one or two years after; I was in no way interested.

How did you get the information, which led you to suppose that there was such an act of parliament?—I saw it in the public papers.

It was publicly known that there was an Act relating to the settlement?—It was publicly known that there was such an Act, but the particulars were not known for a great length of time.

You say you first heard of the Act some time in the year 1798?—Yes; but I think the particulars were not known till about two years after.

Was it not also known that such loans might be made with the permission of the government?—Interest was made at head-quarters for leave to visit the Durbar, and it was always considered as a favour done to allow it.

For what purpose did they go there?—To lend money to the Nabob.

Permission was sometimes granted?—Yes.

It was pretty well known what they were going for?—Yes.

*The Hon.
Basil Cochrane.*

Was it always in writing, or verbal?—I do not know; I know one gentleman who attempted to go there, that was Dr. Gahagan, who went without the leave of the government in 1796, and was ordered to proceed to England immediately; and it was so notoriously known, that it was written upon the wall of the government garden house, with the hand, "this is the way to England," in large characters; and this was at the time that Mr. Abbott had transactions with the Nabob; he was the gentleman in favour at the time.

After the news of this act of parliament came out, can you take upon yourself to say that any permission was given to visit the Durbar for this purpose?—I do not believe there was; but when people were so involved, there was no remedy; they were obliged to go on, otherwise they would have been ruined, as the Nabob would have refused to settle their accounts.

When you speak of people involved, you mean creditors?—Yes, I mean creditors; people who had transactions with the Nabob, when the act of parliament came out, were at a loss what to do, as the Nabob might have refused to settle their accounts.

Did Mr. Webbe make the declarations you have spoken of after it was known that an act of parliament had passed prohibiting loans from British subjects to native princes?—Yes, he did.

Do you understand that Mr. Webbe was aware that by means of those loans the Nabob was enabled to pay his kists with such regularity?—Yes, certainly.

Was it the impression upon your mind that the government winked at such loans?—Yes, certainly they did.

Can you state whether, although the government did not give permission, either verbally or in writing, to British subjects to make those loans, they took any measures to prevent their being made?—I never heard that they did.

You mean to say that those loans continued to be made till the Company took the country from the Nabob?—Certainly.

Do you mean that the Company are now in possession of the Nabob's territories?—Yes, and have been since that time.

John Chamier, Esq. called in; and Examined:

*John Chamier,

WAS it publicly known at Madras, during 1797, 1798, and 1799, that Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. were advancing money to the Nabob, for the purpose of paying his kists into the treasury of the government?—It was certainly so understood; it was always so understood by public rumour.

By public rumour, you mean, that you heard people talking of it?—I understood that Mr. Sewell was particularly so employed.

Did you ever have any conversation with any of the members of the council upon the subject of Messrs. Chase, Sewell, and Co. paying money into the treasury of the government, for the purpose of assisting the Nabob?—I understood it as a matter of notoriety, from general conversation.

What situation did you hold at the time?—I was a member of the board of trade.

Who was the chief secretary then?—Mr. Webbe, whom I afterwards succeeded.

Was it not understood that Mr. Webbe had great influence with the government?—The greatest.

Did you ever know of any person advancing money to the Nabob at the same time that Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Co. did it, and for the same purpose?—Not at that time; but certainly on former occasions, very frequently.

Between the years 1797 and 1799?—I do not recollect.

By Mr. Parry, and Messrs. Abbott and Maitland?—I do not recollect, although I may have heard such things publicly talked of.

Was it understood that the government was winking at such loans to the Nabob?—I rather think it was. The government was very glad to get the money, and did not care who paid it.

There was considerable distress at that time?—Yes; and the government was glad to get the money from any body who came forward.

Did you know of the act of parliament of 1797?—I did.

When did you first know of it?—Soon after it came to Madras, it was publicly talked of.

The

The act of parliament was publicly talked of, and you say these loans continued to be publicly talked of?—I went home in 1799.

*John Chamier,
Esq.*

Did these loans continue to be made till you returned to Madras?—I cannot say; I went to England in 1799, and returned in 1801.

You were asked whether they continued till you came from Madras to England?—I do not recollect particular dates, but I believe they were made during the Mysore war.

Then you understand, that during the Mysore war, till you left Madras in 1799, these loans continued to be made?—I believe they were.

You speak only from public report?—It was not in my particular department at that moment; it has been since, but it was not then.

What was the practice, with respect to the promulgation of statutes, at Madras?—It was only such parts as were necessary for general information that the secretary was ordered to promulgate, by public advertisement or proclamation.

Was that done whether such statute was noticed in the general letter of the Court of Directors, or not?—Not unless it was noticed in the Court of Directors letter.

Do you ever remember an instance of a statute being promulgated not so noticed, merely by way of giving notice of a general law that had passed?—I rather think that was not the general custom.

Are you clear that it was not the general custom to promulgate all statutes that related to India?—I think it was not the case, unless so instructed in the general letter.

When they were noticed in the general letter, were they published?—They were published, if it was thought necessary by the government, for general information.

Was not the Act of 1797 probably mentioned in the general letter to Madras?—I was not secretary at the time.

Would not the government have considered that Act of such a nature as to call for the promulgation at Madras, under the existing circumstances?—Certainly.

Do you mean that it would most probably have been mentioned?—If I had been secretary at the time, I should have suggested it. When a general letter arrives from England, it is read, paragraph by paragraph, at the council board; and the secretary receives orders to publish such parts as are necessary.

Is it not the usage to publish it in the form of literal extracts from the Act?—Yes, it is.

Specifying the Act and chapter?—Yes, certainly.

In the government paper?—Yes, certainly, in the government newspaper.

Do you recollect Lord Wellesley having stopped the Bombay ships which arrived at Madras from China, on their way to Bombay, about this period, and to have taken out of them a large sum in specie, for the public service, for which he gave the owners very handsome terms of remittance in exchange?—I think he did.

Was there any premium allowed by government at this period upon their securities issued in return for loans, besides the interest?—I do not recollect.

What was the rate of interest at this period?—About 10 or 12 per cent.

Martis, 2^o die Junii 1818.

THOMAS PERÉGRINE COURTENAY, Esq. in the Chair.

William Wright, Esquire, called in; and Examined.

IN what situation are you?—I am auditor of the accounts of the East India Company.

*William Wright,
Esq.*

What accounts?—I am auditor of the India accounts.

What papers have you got with you?—I have a paper which has been ordered by the Committee; it is called, "Mr. Fordyce's plan for the payment of the Nabob of Carnatic's debts," as sent to the chairman of the East India Company on the 2d of February 1804.

What other papers have you?—The only other paper I have to lay before the Committee, is the next in order which the Committee made; it is the plan of the chairman of the East India Company, of the 4th of April 1804: the letter from

*William Wright,

from Mr. Fordyce, returning the same, with his remarks I have not been able as yet to find.

But which you will produce on another day?—I shall, if possible.

Were you at Madras in the year 1797?—No, nor at any other time.

Can you speak from your knowledge, upon the inspection of the books belonging to the East India Company, of the distressed state of the money market between the 18th of January 1797 and the 31st of March 1799?—The distress for money at Madras was represented to the Court of Directors by the government there, at several periods between that time.

Can you state any particulars as to what that distress was, or have you made any extracts from the books?—Only by looking at the correspondence.

Are you able to answer the question from looking at the books?—Certainly; as far as I can learn from the correspondence to the Court of Directors. There is a letter from the government at Madras, dated the 14th of February 1799, in which they write, that in their former advices they had apprized the Court of the exertions which the present exigency of public affairs required, which had rendered necessary the opening the subscription for a loan; for payment of which, bills for about a lack of pagodas would be granted, at 9s. the pagoda, at six months sight. In the letter of the 9th of August 1799, the government and council detailed the means they had used for raising the necessary supplies to meet the public exigency. Their letter refers to former periods.

That is the whole that you are able to speak to?—That is the whole.

What is the earliest period?—1798 to 1799.

Can you tell what money was borrowed between January and December 1797?—I am not able to state that.

Between the second of January and the fifth of December 1798?—No.

You recollect the general information, with which you are more likely to come at than any other person, of the peculiar exigency of the Company's finances in 1798 and 1799, while the Mysore war was carrying on and the army in the field; was not the army unpaid at that time, and the sepoys in arrears? I am not quite sure that such was the fact; but there were arrears due to the army at the beginning of the year 1799, or the end of 1798.

In point of fact, were not a great number of financial expedients resorted to; this you may be enabled to state from your general acquaintance with the subject?—Certainly; the government were very strongly pressed by their financial wants at that period; I mean at the end of 1798 or the beginning of 1799; the loan I have mentioned, which was made in February 1799, and which was called the "war loan," was of itself a proof of the want of money, from the very unusual rate.

Were they borrowing money at twelve per cent?—That was prior to that period; I think the loan at twelve per cent was prior to 1799.

Was that before Lord Wellesley went out?—Yes, I think it was; I am not quite sure, but it was just about that time; the loan had been proposed previous to his arrival.

Charles Forbes, Esq. a Member, informed the Committee as follows.

Charles Forbes, Esq.

I WAS in India at that period, and perfectly acquainted with the general distress of the Company for money; which was so great that at Bombay, about that time, the Company's securities were issued, bearing interest at six per cent, at a discount of 20 per cent; and soon after, there was a loan opened for borrowing money at an interest of 12 per cent. At that time the government of Bombay, in one instance, drew bills on England at the exchange of 2s. 10d. the Bombay rupee, at nine months date; this was during the period of the last Mysore war.

At what time did the Mysore war end?—On the 4th of May 1799, by the storming of Seringapatam; but part of the army kept the field for several months after.

Do you know when the finances began to improve?—Very soon after the Mysore war; when the army returned into cantonments, the expenses of supporting it in the field necessarily ceased.

Respecting prohibition of lending Money to Natives.

Appendix, N° 1.

COPIES of Company's Orders to the Government of Madras, forbidding British Subjects to lend Money to the Native Powers.

Extract Court's General Letter to Fort St. George; dated 27th October 1714.

Para. 60. WE very well like the injunctions, mentioned in the 77th paragraph of your letter by the London, to all our people, that none of them have any dealings with the country governments in money matters; and earnestly desire this may be frequently repeated to all places, as our standing irreversible order, never to be broken on any occasion.

Extract Public Letter from the Court of Directors to the Governor in Council at Fort St. George; dated 11th June 1777.

Para. 18. IT is our further order, that no Company's servant, or any person under the Company's protection, be permitted to lend money to any of the country powers in India, nor to any person or persons holding commissions under or employed by them, directly or indirectly, to be repaid at a future time, on mortgages, or securities in the nature of mortgages upon lands, or from the produce of any growing revenue of the country; and in case any of the Company's servants are now concerned in any such loans as aforesaid, such servant or servants shall draw up a specific and particular account of the whole transaction from the beginning, setting forth, how such loan or loans is or are secured, to be delivered to our President and Council within thirty days after this regulation shall be made known, and before such person or persons shall proceed to recover such money, and afterwards they shall and may proceed to recover the same, as they shall think fit.

19. And for more effectually preventing such loans, we hereby direct, that you inform all the country powers with whom such transactions may be likely to take place, of this regulation, and request them not to have or permit any dealings of the nature above-mentioned with any of the Company's servants, or with persons under the Company's protection.

Extract Public Letter from the Court of Directors to the Governor in Council at Fort St. George; dated 12th July 1782.

Para. 30. IN addition to our orders of the 11th June 1777, para. 18, that no persons shall lend money to the country powers on mortgages, or securities in the nature of mortgages upon lands, or from the produce, or any growing revenue of the country; we hereby direct, that no Company's servant, or any person under the Company's protection, be permitted to lend money to the country powers in India, nor to any person or persons holding commissions under or employed by them, upon any other kind of security, or on any pretence whatsoever.

Extract Public Letter from the Court of Directors to the Governor in Council at Fort St. George; dated 9th December 1784.

103. WE cannot conclude this subject, without adverting in the strongest terms to the prohibitions, which have from time to time issued under the authority of different Courts of Directors, against any of our servants, or of those under our protection, having any money transactions with any of the country powers, without the knowledge and previous consent of our respective governments abroad. We are happy to find that the Nabob, sensible of the great embarrassments both to his own and the Company's affairs, which the enormous amount of their private claims have occasioned, is willing to engage not to incur any new debts with individuals; and we think difficulty will be found in persuading his Highness into a positive stipulation for that purpose; and though the legislature has thus humanely interfered in behalf of such individuals as might otherwise have been reduced to great distress by the past transactions, we hereby, in the most pointed and positive terms, repeat our prohibition upon this subject, and direct, that no person, being a servant of the Company or living under our protection, shall, on any pretence whatever, be concerned in any loan or other money transaction with any of the country powers, unless with the knowledge and express permission of our respective governments; and if any of our servants, or others living under our protection, shall be discovered in any respect counteracting these orders, we strictly enjoin you to take the first opportunity of sending them home to England, to be punished as guilty of disobedience of orders; and no protection or assistance of the Company shall be given for the recovery of any loans connected with such transactions. Your particular attention to this subject is strictly enjoined; and any connivance on your parts, at a breach of our orders upon it, will incur our highest displeasure.

Para. 16. THE next point for our consideration, is the present state of the Carnatic and the Tanjore country, occasioned by usurious loans for tuncaws or assignments upon the revenue, and and the mode to be adopted for putting an end to a practice which our prohibitory and repeated orders have hitherto not been able to effect. That they who have amassed wealth in our service, or under our protection, should, to increase that wealth, become parties in measures which are not only contrary to our express directions, but which have a natural tendency to reduce whole provinces to misery and wretchedness, and finally to sacrifice the dearest interests of those under whose auspices their fortunes have been acquired, is matter of most serious concern: but as the evil is great, the remedy must be strong; we therefore authorize you to follow the line prescribed in Lord Hobart's Minute of the 24th November 1795, and direct, that in every case where, according to your belief, (which you shall ratify upon oath) any servant of the Company, or person living under the Company's protection, shall, in defiance of our orders, be in future concerned, directly or indirectly, in any loan or other money transaction with any of the native powers (unless with the knowledge and express permission of government), or shall, in virtue of tuncaws or assignments already issued for past loans, be engaged, directly or indirectly, in the receipt or collection of any part of the revenues of the Carnatic or Tanjore, in consequence of money already lent to the Nabob and the Rajah in defiance of our repeated orders and regulations; such servant of the Company, or person living under the Company's protection, shall be called before the council board, and examined upon oath touching such supposed loan or money transaction; and in the event of such servant of the Company, or other person living under the Company's protection, being found guilty of a breach of our orders and regulations in this respect, or refusing to answer to such questions as may be put to him, or not answering satisfactorily, so as to exculpate himself from all concern, directly or indirectly, in such loan or money transaction, or not producing his books, if called upon so to do, for the purpose of their being inspected by a committee, who shall be sworn not to divulge the contents thereof, except such parts as shall be evidence of such nefarious transactions, he shall be sent to Europe by the first opportunity.

17. The same method of proceeding must be observed with respect to such of His Majesty's officers as shall be suspected of having been concerned, directly or indirectly, in similar transactions, reporting the result thereof to the commander in chief of His Majesty's forces in India, who will receive instructions from His Majesty's ministers upon the subject.

18. We are aware that endeavours may be used to defeat the purpose of these directions; but as we are sensible of the absolute necessity of them, we exhort you to proceed with firmness in the execution of them, relying upon our approbation and support.

Para. 7. OUR prohibitory orders respecting our servants being concerned in money transactions with the Company's tributaries, having been sanctioned and confirmed by an act of the legislature, of which you have been already informed, it behoves you to be more than ordinarily vigilant in your exertions for detecting and bringing to punishment such as may be found acting in defiance thereof, and unremitting in your endeavours to put an end to a practice which has proved ruinous to the native borrower, destructive to the country, highly prejudicial to the Company's affairs, and reflecting dishonour upon those Europeans concerned therein; and as, from the artful manner in which these transactions are said to be carried on, through the secret agency of native Dubashes and others, the means of legal detection are in many instances difficult, if not impossible to come at, you are in all such cases to follow the directions contained in our letter, in the Political Department, of the 31st August 1796.

Extract Political Letter to Fort St. George, the 31st October 1799.

Letter from 15th Oct. 1798, paras. (17 a' 19); loans of money by British subjects on the Tanjore country, and desiring particular instructions.

Para. 6. UPON the subject of the clause in the late act of parliament, prohibiting British subjects, except under the restrictions therein mentioned, from lending money to the native princes in India, you have requested our particular instructions for your guidance, declaring that, without such instructions, you can have no hope that the clause before mentioned will enable you to exterminate this dangerous evil. It is impossible for us to frame instructions, upon this important subject, of a more specific and effectual nature than those contained in the 16th paragraph of our letter, in the Political Department, dated the 31st of August 1796, to which we enjoin the most explicit obedience. They were issued under an impression of the difficulty, so strongly pointed out by you, if not the utter impossibility of a minute, or what may be deemed a legal detection, in such cases. The prohibition contained in the Act, as well as the directions in the paragraph before mentioned, is to extend to every description of natives who have pecuniary engagements with the Company, under the several denominations of subsidy, tribute, rent, or peshcush. And for the more effectually preventing our servants, and other British subjects, from being in future engaged in money transactions with any of the princes or natives in India, under either of the above descriptions, it is our positive direction that no countenance or assistance be afforded by you towards the recovery of such loans, or any arrangements formed under your authority for their liquidation.

Appx. No. 1.

Respecting prohibition of lending Money to Natives.

Letter from 15th October 1798, paras. (86 a' 90), relative to the province of Tinnevely being mortgaged, first to Mr. Robert Powney, and afterwards to Mr. Thomas Parry and Paupiah, for the avowed purpose of procuring money to the Nabob, to enable him to pay his kists to the Company.

24. After the repeated and peremptory orders which we have from time to time issued against British subjects being concerned in any loan or money transactions with the native princes of India, or in obtaining tuncaws or assignments of lands as a security for the payment thereof, we feel utterly at a loss what further directions to give you that shall be more effectual in their operation to remedy the evil complained of. The clause in the Act of the 37th of His present Majesty, cap. 142, sec. 28, seems calculated to embrace every species of money transaction with the native princes, and includes all British subjects whatever; and by a preceding paragraph we have extended the prohibition to every description of natives having pecuniary engagements with the Company. The latitude allowed you by our instructions of the 31st August 1796, extends even to cases of suspicion; and we seriously call upon you to exercise with firmness and impartiality the discretion therein vested in you, for the suppression of an evil of so serious a nature, and so prejudicial to the Company's affairs. The parties whom you have now brought to our notice as being invested with the power of collecting the revenues of a whole province, must be considered as acting principally as the agents of others; and whilst, under the confidence of agency, our servants have the means of transgressing our orders with impunity, without the fear of detection, we may wish in vain to see a period put to such transactions. As a warning therefore to others how they act in a similar capacity, we direct that the Company's protection be withdrawn from Messrs. Robert Powney and Thomas Parry, and that they be required to repair to Europe by one of the ships of the ensuing season. From the notoriety of the character of Paupiah Braminy, who was the public Dubash during the corrupt administration of Mr. John Holland, we are not surprised at his being employed as the native agent upon such occasions. But we trust to your zeal and activity, in endeavouring to discover the names of such of our servants, or other British subjects, as shall avail themselves of such agency, or of any other native or European agency, in lending money to the princes of India, or to that description of natives contained in a preceding paragraph; and all Europeans who may in future be engaged in such nefarious practices, whether in or out of the Company's service, otherwise than with your express permission, must be ordered to Europe.

Extract Letter from the Court of Directors to the Governor in Council at Fort St. George, in the Revenue Department; dated 31st October 1799.

Para. 5. WE are greatly concerned at the repeated instances which come before us of money transactions between our servants and the Company's tributaries, contrary to our most positive orders and regulations. Trusting that our late decision upon the case of Lieutenant-colonel Oliver, of which you have already been advised from the Public Department, will operate as a corrective to this growing evil, we will not, upon the present occasion, proceed to measures of severity against the parties named in the proceedings before us, two of whom appear to have been exonerated from any participation, as principals, in the loans and mortgages which have been so properly brought to your observation by Mr. Jackson, the collector of poligar peshcush; but if, contrary to our expectation, neither the act of the legislature, nor our own prohibitory orders, nor the example before-mentioned, shall put an end to such transactions, we enjoin you, in the most earnest manner, to a strict observance of the directions upon this subject, in the 16th paragraph of our letter, in the Political Department, of the 31st August 1796, which you are to consider as extending to all such persons as may be found to act as agents in such transactions. We further direct, that if you shall have reason to suppose that any of our servants, acting in the capacity of collector or otherwise (without whose privity it appears almost impossible they should exist), are conniving at any such transactions, or who shall not report the same to you, upon their coming to the knowledge thereof, such persons must be immediately removed from their stations.

Para. 20. WE received in the packet by Henry Dundas, copy of a letter from Mr. Macleod, our Resident at Tanjore, dated the 15th August last, which contains some information respecting the lending money to the Rajah by British subjects. Letter to, dated 14th Oct. 1797. 18. WE trust, that whenever the charter of justice may arrive, we shall be furnished by your honourable Court with particular instructions for our guidance on this important subject. The course of our communications shows that this injurious practice still continues to have effect, and that the difficulty of establishing a minute, or what might be deemed a legal detection, amounts almost to an impossibility.

Para. 2. OUR late letters will have conveyed to your honourable Court, a very full explanation of the state of our funds, and our correspondence with the Governor General in Council of Bengal, upon that important subject. During this correspondence, which has lasted from the month of August to December, we invariably pressed upon the attention of the supreme government, the absolute necessity of supplying us with specie, as the only effectual means of enabling us to defray our military expenses, and to provide the large investment for which your honourable Court had indented, and which the gentlemen at Bengal had directed us not to curtail. Though the Governor General appears to have been sensible of the force of our representation upon this point, yet having hitherto received no consignments in bullion or money, we have been compelled, as your honourable Court will readily perceive, to have recourse to various expedients for the relief of our pecuniary embarrassments.

3. The chief of these temporary expedients were, the raising the exchange of our bills upon your honourable Court to 8s. 6d. per pagoda, and the opening a subscription to a loan at 12 per cent. interest. This rate of remittance however was closed, in consequence of communication with the supreme government, on the 5th December, when the bills drawn upon you at that rate amounted to pagodas 3,28,375. 13. 58. The subscription to the loan is still open, nor is it possible for us to calculate when it may be possible to shut it, since the terms of the usurious loans which are made to his highness the Nabob of the Carnatic and his excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, together with the large exportation of our specie during the intermission of a public medium of exchange between this presidency and Bengal, have raised the rate of interest so high as to make us despair of procuring money upon easier terms for the conduct of your affairs, until an effectual remedy may be applied to either or both of those grievous evils.

Para. 15. WE have published your orders, prohibiting Company's servants, and others living under the Company's authority, from having money concerns with any of the native powers; and with a view of checking this dangerous practice as much as we can, a proclamation has been issued, positively interdicting any of the natives, living under our protection, on pain of banishment to Bencoolen, from taking tuncaws, or assignments, on any of the districts mortgaged to the Company, in consequence of loans made or to be made.

Extract Political Letter from Fort St. George, the 15th October 1798.

Para. 86. WE have frequently had occasion to bring under your notice the money transactions of Europeans in the provinces of Tanjore and the Carnatic; without making therefore any further comment upon the subject in this place, we shall proceed to acquaint your honourable Court that, at our consultation of the third of April, we received a letter from Mr. Robert Powney, "appointed" (as he informs us) "by his highness Walajah, Nabob of Arcot, &c. &c. his agent in the Tinnevely province, for the avowed purpose of procuring him money to enable him to pay his kists to the Company."

87. Mr. Powney proceeds to inform us that "his highness Omdut ul Omrah, upon the death of his father, confirmed the appointment; and agreeably to his requisition and instructions, Mr. Powney advanced all his own property and procured loans from others. As security for these loans, assignments were given on the country, and his Highness's faith pledged, under his seal and signature, that they should remain in Mr. Powney's hands till all the debt was paid off.

88. The object of Mr. Powney's address was to state, that his highness the Nabob, instead of adhering to his engagement, had deprived that gentleman of all his securities by force, and had appointed other agents, Mr. Thomas Parry, a merchant of Madras, and Paupiah Bramin, of notorious character; and that, in consequence of an agreement entered into by them to supply his Highness with certain sums at stated periods, the whole province of Tinnevely (Punge Mahal excepted) has been mortgaged to them, upon a bond similar, as Mr. Powney states, to that which has been granted to himself.

89. Though the object of this letter was the hope of redressing a private injury, yet it involved matter of weighty consideration in regard to those usurious transactions which have been so frequently represented, and which are so fully explained and corroborated by Mr. Powney. As we were sanguine that our representation would have attracted the serious notice of your honourable Court, and that, in consequence, your dispatches by the Virginie, at that time expected, would contain specific directions for the guidance of this government upon cases of this nature, we resolved to postpone the consideration of Mr. Powney's letter until after the arrival of that vessel.

90. A short time after, Mr. Powney informed us that his highness the Nabob had redressed all the grievances of which he complained; and that having no longer any charge to make against his Highness or any other person, he requested, in justice to all parties, permission to withdraw his former letter. A request with which we determined not to comply.

Extract of a letter from the honourable Court of Directors, in the Public Department, dated 5th June 1799.

OUR prohibitory orders respecting servants being concerned in money transactions with the Company's tributaries, having been sanctioned and confirmed by an act of the legislature, of which you have been already informed; it behoves you to be more than ordinarily vigilant in your exertions for detecting and bringing to punishment such as may be found acting in defiance thereof, and unremitting in your endeavours to put an end to a practice which has proved ruinous to the native borrower, destructive to the country, highly prejudicial to the Company's affairs, and reflecting dishonour upon those Europeans concerned therein; and as, from the artful manner in which these transactions are said to be carried on through the secret agency of native Dubashes and others, the means of legal detection are in many instances difficult to come at, you are, in all such cases, to follow the directions contained in our letter, in the political department, of the 31st August 1796.

Extract of a letter from the honorable Court of Directors, in the Political Department, dated 31st August 1796.

THE next point for our consideration is the present state of the Carnatic and Tanjore country, occasioned by usurious loans for tuncaws or assignments upon the revenue, and the mode to be adopted for putting an end to a practice which our prohibitory and repeated orders have hitherto not been able to effect. But as the evil is great, the remedy must be strong: we therefore authorize and direct, that in every case where, according to your belief, any servant of the Company's, or person living under the Company's protection, shall, in defiance of our orders, be in future concerned, directly or indirectly, in any loan or other money transaction, with any of the native powers (unless with the knowledge and express permission of government), or shall, in virtue of tuncaws or assignments already issued for past loans, be engaged, directly or indirectly, in the receipt or collection of any part of the revenues of the Carnatic or Tanjore, in consequence of money already lent to the Nabob and the Rajah in defiance of our repeated orders and regulations; such servant of the Company, or person living under the Company's protection, shall be called before the council board, and examined upon oath touching such supposed loan or money transaction; and in the event of such servant of the Company, or other person living under the Company's protection, being found guilty of a breach of our orders and regulations in this respect, or refusing to answer to such questions as may be put to him, or not answering satisfactorily, so as to exculpate himself from all concern, directly or indirectly, in such loan or money transaction, or not producing his books, if called upon so to do, for the purpose of their being inspected by a committee, who shall be sworn not to divulge the contents thereof, except such parts as shall be evidence of such nefarious transactions, he shall be sent to Europe by the first opportunity.

Para. 8. OUR President has so fully discussed the combination of Durbar influence, in his Minute upon the subject of loans, and has so clearly proved the injuries arising from so pernicious a system, that we shall take the liberty of referring your honourable Court to that Minute for an explanation of the insuperable difficulties which have opposed themselves to the moderate and salutary propositions that have been made to his Highness.

9. We cannot, however, but indulge a hope that your honourable Court will interpose to save the extensive and once flourishing provinces of the Carnatic from impending ruin, and confidently rely upon early instructions from you for that purpose.

10. We desire, particularly, to draw your attention to the situation of your pecuniary claims upon his Highness, and request you would acquaint us how far those, not adverted to in the treaty of 1792, are considered by you as demandable, and the manner in which they are to be enforced.

Extract of Fort St. George Political Consultations, the 24th October 1795.

(Diary.)

The President delivers in the following Minute:

The President's Minute in Council, the 24th October 1795.

THE proposed arrangement which has been brought into discussion since the death of his highness the Nabob Wallajah, makes it necessary for me to advert, with more minuteness than has been usual upon the public records, to the system on which the administration of his revenues has been conducted, because it manifestly shows the necessity of that change which it is my object to accomplish, both in respect to the country itself, which, though under the immediate control of his Highness, it is the duty of this government, in a general point of view, to cherish and protect, and in respect to the security which has been pledged to the Company for the support of their military establishment and for the discharge of the consolidated debts guaranteed by parliament to the private creditors of his highness the Nabob. I shall, therefore, in this Minute, lay before the board the information which I have collected, and the consequent observations which have occurred to me, upon the usurious loans which it has long been the practice, principally among the European gentlemen of the presidency, to make to the Durbar for mortgages upon the different provinces of the Carnatic. And here I may be allowed to express my belief that, though the honourable Court of Directors have been extremely pointed in their orders and observations against this practice, the continuance of it has been owing, in some measure, to the want of that candid exposition of the fact which it is my intention to make.

The southern districts of the Nabob's country, and Tinnevely in particular, as being the most distant from the presidency, have been the theatre in which these scenes have been chiefly exhibited; but it is notorious that similar practices have been introduced, and are now actually in use in Vellore, Arcot, and Trichinopoly.

The transaction commences at Madras, where the kists of his Highness are payable, and is opened by an agreement between the Nabob and some one of the principal houses of business, or even some of the Company's servants, for the payment of a certain sum into the treasury on account of his Highness's public engagements.

The advancers of this money, knowing from experience that a simple mortgage would be insufficient security unless the means of reimbursing themselves should be placed in their own hands, find it necessary, not only that a person of their own nomination should be appointed to the management of the mortgaged province, but that there should be a vigilant superintendence and a powerful support of the concern upon the spot; hence the expediency of a connection between them and the military commanding officer in the district; he also finds it advantageous to embark in the speculation, because he thereby adds considerable weight to his own interest, and because it facilitates the means of raising money to carry on his part of the concern. From this connection both parties derive ample security for their money, by the absolute power of the one in command upon the spot, and by the weighty influence of the other in command of monied interest at Madras. This outline is filled up by a farther connection with the person who appears to receive the appointment of amildar or manager from the Nabob; hence it is either stipulated that a person chosen by the money lenders at Madras shall be nominated to manage the district, or, where men of rank may have already been appointed as foudars by his Highness, the same effect is produced by a communication between him, the commanding officer, and the money lenders, previous to the agreement for a loan at the Durbar. The combination is in this latter case completed by the appointment of a tassildar on the part of the money lenders, and thenceforward produces a uniform, consistent, and connected operation.

His Highness having by this arrangement obtained his principal object, provision for the payment of his kist, without any immediate disbursement from himself, delivers his people and and his province up to the control and power of the manager, evidently without regard to their situation; because, as his terms with the money-lenders necessarily provide for the removal of all restraint from the governing power, so he must expect that the manager, who can have no interest in the future prosperity of the country, will have recourse to every means by which he may hope to bear himself and his connexions harmless, and that within the shortest time possible.

Appx. No. 7.

Discharging the Nabob of Arcot's Kists.

The interest allowed by the circar varies in different places, and depends not a little upon the influence which the lender may happen to have at the Durbar; at a medium, however, it may be stated at four per cent. per month, besides the pay of all the servants employed by the junto in receiving the revenue. This last charge is always a fixed sum at the expense of the Nabob, considerably above the actual expense incurred by the tehsildar, and the difference is considered amongst the customary advantages of the concern.

The manager arrived within his district, immediately assembles his under-managers, aumildars, and renters, and then ensues the second part of this oppressive system. The tehsildar is importunate, and the manager must find means of satisfying his demands; subordinate soncars, native as well as European, are called upon for assistance.

The soncar makes his advance; and, in the first instance, the aumildar or renter of the districts assigned over as security for such advance, grants his bond until other securities shall be forthcoming; these are either the bonds of the inhabitants, or grain. In time, about three-fourths of the sum are secured to the soncar by grain made over to him, and placed under charge of his servants; and for the other one-fourth, the bonds of the inhabitants are made over for that part of the revenue payable by them to the circar in ready money, upon the cultivation of dry grain, &c. These are frequently forced from them at the commencement of the season; which consequently compels them to anticipate the crops, and to pay interest upon money before it is due from them.

At this period of the transaction the soncar sends his servants and peons into the country, with an order from the Nabob's manager to the guards placed therein, to afford every assistance (as it is generally called), but in fact to obey them implicitly in collecting the amount of the bonds from the inhabitants. Anxiety to secure so precarious a property naturally leads the soncar to adopt such measures as power enables him, and the custom of the country authorizes. Then follows this process: if the ryot is dilatory in the discharge of his bond, he is confined without victuals, beaten with rods, and compelled to pay batia to those very persons and guards who are the means of his confinement and punishment. In this manner, I am credibly informed that an inhabitant, who grants his bond for 100 chuckrums, is compelled, before he is released from the consequences, to pay from 110 to 115 chuckrums, according to circumstances: if his credit or his other means are exhausted, which is too often the case, he must necessarily dispose of some part of his stock, which consists of cattle and seed-grain.

The first part of the system which I have stated describes the original cause at the fountain head. The second comprises the detail which springs out of it. In both, the consideration of the means which are immediately employed, and of the effect which it may produce upon the future revenue, is abandoned; and while the grand mover of these effects is at a distance from the scene, and the subordinate instrument is hardened by practice, conscience is lulled to rest by the delusive opiate of "interest upon interest."

Thus far I have traced the progress of a loan secured upon the bond of the inhabitants; it will not be less painful for me to pursue it to the disposal of the paddy.

The first endeavour of those who are engaged in a concern of this nature is to enhance the price of grain by artificial means, lest the ordinary price of that article, the sole subsistence of the natives, should fail to answer the large advance of money, and the exorbitant advantage expected upon it by the soncar. The means of effecting this purpose are easy, for the necessitous condition of the ryots compels them to dispose of their grain as soon as it comes into their possession, in order to satisfy the urgent demands upon them which I have already described. The purchasers of this grain monopolize it until the demand, which increases with the consumption, advances the price. If towards the expiration of the season any part of the grain should yet remain on hand, the expedient is to divide the whole quantity, in whatever condition it may be, among the inhabitants, and to force it upon them by guddyam. This guddyam, it appears, compels the people (in general the manufacturers) to receive grain at a valuation considerably above the market price; and it would seem to be of ancient establishment and current practice; for in the agreement which I was successful in negotiating with his late highness the Nabob Wallajah, for placing a portion of the Tinnevely weavers under the immediate superintendence of the Company's resident, his Highness has expressly reserved, nor could be prevailed upon to relinquish, the right of his circar to exercise this guddyam.

The inferior servants of the circar, whose duty should be to watch over the public interests, are placed under the arbitrary control of the money lenders, without whose permission not an anna can be expended, nor a measure of grain issued, except by stealth. Indeed I understand, that upon the arrival of a soncar, or his representative, in a mortgaged district, the usual custom is to notify his authority throughout the villages, and to prohibit the expenditure of grain or money, but by his order. This prohibition extends to the ordinary charges of pagodas, maniams and sibbundy; and when an order is granted from the sudder cutcherry for any of those purposes, the persons receiving the sunnud must wait at the cutcherry of the money lender, for a confirmation of his right.

Instead of receiving relief by tucavy, (or advances for cultivation) at the proper season, by which to replace their cattle and to provide seed for extending their cultivation, the inhabitants bitants are often obliged to sacrifice both to their own immediate wants and the rapacity of the soncar; of course, no system of regulation can prevail, and every hope of improvement must be relinquished. Some of the means for enhancing the price of grain I have already related, but the subject is exhaustless. The polygars have been prevented by the manager of Tinnevelly, from selling, within the circar lands, the grain which is allowed them for dash-cavelly (or watching fees); and I should hesitate to advance, if I was not supported by the authority of public record, that during a late scarcity of grain in the southern provinces, Estabar Khan, the Nabob's manager, had the hardiness to write a public complaint to the Company's collector against the polygars, for selling grain to the inhabitants. Nor was the evil removed without the interposition of this government, who by sending vessels loaded with grain, induced the monopolizers, from regard to their own interests, to restore their usual supplies to the market; yet did the Company not escape the effects of this monopoly, for they were reduced to the necessity of purchasing grain at the price to which the monopolizers had raised it, for the subsistence of those troops who were stationed there for the protection of his Highness's territories.

After this exposition, no comment can be required to show that this species of government, if it deserve the name of government, contains the most grievous oppression of the people, the certain impoverishment of the country, and consequently the inevitable decay of revenue; but it will be useful to show the particular manner in which it affects the resources of his highness the Nabob.

It is estimated, and I believe not with exaggeration, that the province of Tinnevelly alone is annually mortgaged, upon the terms I have described, to the amount of 3,00,000 pagodas; and calculating the period for which interest is paid upon the whole sum, at six months, the amount of interest, at 4 per cent. per month, is - - - - - 72,000
The charges paid by the circar for the sibbundy of the money lenders during that period, cannot amount to less than - - - - - 3,000

The annual loss, therefore, to the circar on this transaction is, pagodas - - - 75,000

That an individual gentleman should in less than three years amass a fortune of more than 50,000*l.* would be a matter of wonder, if this statement did not, at the same time, afford a solution of the difficulty, and a proof of its own correctness.

But the scene is not closed here: besides the dealings of the principal soncars with the head manager, there are subordinate transactions of a similar nature among the inferior officers, and those who possess but smaller means for usurious practices, amounting, in all, perhaps, from fifty thousand to a lac of pagodas; this brings an additional expense upon the circar, because interest is allowed on all advances made to the renters on pressing occasions before the kists are due; and, on the other hand, the inhabitants are not exempt from a part of this expense, which is imposed upon them by fine, forfeiture or guddyam, in order that the renter may be enabled to make the advance upon which he receives interest.

As the manager is under engagements to pay the fullest computed value of the district, he is justified, according to the custom of the country, in availing himself of every possible resource. A proportion of the church allowance is withheld, the pay of all descriptions of servants is kept in long arrear, and in particular the sibbundy sepoys; a small advance, indeed is sometimes made for subsistence, but their principal resource (and it is not unproductive) is in the batta which they receive, by acknowledged practice, while doing the duty of sizawuls, and in the dextrous management of the power which that source gives them to extort presents for their forbearance. The manager knows from experience, that in the event of assuming the country, the English government will be induced, either, from motives of humanity, to attend to the calls of these unhappy people, or, from motives of policy, to satisfy the clamours of a mutinous and undisciplined rabble. Thus, at the very time when the exigencies of government became most pressing, a part of their resources which ought to be immediate, is appropriated to the liquidation of arrears.

If this is a true history of the present management, it may be asked, why an immediate and large defalcation of the revenue does not follow; for the operation of such a system as I have described tends directly to the point of ruin. Nothing less than the hand of arbitrary power could avert it, even for a time. In proportion as the means of cultivation decreases, the price of grain is enhanced; and it is a notorious but inhuman maxim of eastern finance, that a year of scarcity is more productive than a year of plenty to the circar, because, as a given number of months can only consume a proportionate quantity of grain, the immediate advantage or disadvantage of government arises from the price at which that given quantity is sold. In years of plenty the superfluous grain is in a great measure useless, owing to the partial and difficult means of exportation; in years of scarcity the same given quantity is required for the subsistence of the people; and as the demand is greater than the supply, an increase of the price is produced by the usual effects of a competition in the market.

Though the dealings of soncars in the collection of revenue are not of recent establishment, yet the terms of loans have never been carried to so usurious an extent as since the practice has been introduced among Europeans. And though the inevitable effects of it may be protracted by the harsh expedients of an arbitrary government, yet no man who reflects upon such a system can doubt that the resources of the country have been undermined, that the wealth of the people is exhausted, and that a principle of decline has been established which is now precipitating the Carnatic, with accumulated weight and rapidity, to destruction. Impressed as I am, with a serious conviction of this truth, I cannot but look with extreme anxiety to the nature of the security provided by the treaty of 1792, for those resources on which the British interests on the coast of Coromandel materially depend. I cannot but see that the present system of collecting the revenues of the Carnatic manifestly invalidates that security, and that, whenever a failure may happen in the payment of his Highness's kists, we shall in vain have recourse to it for the recovery of the defalcation; as those payments, though avowedly moderate in their extent, are now kept up by the extraordinary means which I have described, so it is reasonable to suppose that a failure, whenever it may happen, will arise from the total impoverishment of the people. In taking possession of a district under such circumstances, for the amount of a kist which will then have fallen in arrear, we shall, instead of finding the immediate means of reimbursement, become charged with an exhausted country, requiring all the liberal assistance and fostering attention of a lenient and indulgent government. It is not only that our means will be curtailed at our greatest need, but that humanity and policy will call upon us for advances of money at a time when our expenses will be most burthensome. This is an embarrassment from which the known resources of this government are unequal to extricate us, and it is a dilemma unprovided for by the treaty of 1792; for the objects of that treaty are the payment of a debt guaranteed by parliament, which we are not at liberty to postpone, and the discharge of military pay, which cannot be interrupted without danger to the state.

To avert the consequences of an evil fraught with such imminent danger, is an object that merits the most serious as well as the most unwearied attention of this government; and it is a matter of very great mortification to me, that, seeing the progress of this calamity, and anticipating, as I do, its pestiferous effects, I am compelled to acknowledge that the means of arresting its course is extremely difficult. The prohibitory orders hitherto published have all failed of their object, because the evasion of them is easy to Europeans through the agency of their native servants, and because the enormous profits which arise from these usurious loans hold out an irresistible temptation to adventurers. To prohibit the intercourse of Europeans at the Durbar is ineffectual; other channels of communication are open, and the superintendent of an usurious loan at Palamcottah, conveys his demands to the ears of the Nabob with no less certainty than he who lives in the precincts of Chepauck. As long, therefore, as his Highness shall be so regardless of his true interest as to deliver up his provinces and his people to public depredation, so long will there be found men who, in the pursuit of extravagant advantages, will overleap the bounds of discretion and of moral obligation.

So desperate a malady requires a remedy that shall reach its source; and I have no hesitation in stating my opinion, that there is no mode of eradicating the disease but by removing the original cause, and placing those districts which are pledged for the security of his kists, beyond the reach of his Highness's management. The disposition which his Highness has already evinced to oppose such an arrangement, leaves me in no doubt of the real cause. It is not possible to calculate the extent and variety of interests which are involved in this one pursuit; and though they are subdivided in every direction of the Carnatic, yet at the call of danger they all rally round a common centre. The great houses of business, who are the principal money lenders at the Durbar, borrow from individuals, who, though not absolutely engaged in the loan itself, are partakers of the speculation in a remote degree, and feel with no less sensibility than their principals the approach of danger; similarity of interest makes it a common cause, and the great body of influence which is condensed upon this principle, is uniformly exerted to support his highness the Nabob in an inflexible resistance against a melioration of system, and to oppose a reformation which I consider essential to the national welfare.

In the proposition which I have made to his highness the Nabob, I am aware that I offered great sacrifices on the part of the Company; but with the impression of those evils I have stated strongly upon my mind, I could not but consider the object I had in view above every idea of a pecuniary nature, even if the system of the Nabob's government was not in itself calculated completely to annihilate every source of revenue.

Mr. Saunders expresses his acquiescence in the Minute of the President, under a reservation in respect to some of the facts stated in it, which are not within his knowledge.

Resolved; That a copy of the President's Minute be transmitted to the honourable the Court of Directors, by the present dispatch, and that the matter contained in it be recommended to their most serious attention.

Para. 3. OUR President has entered a Minute, which may be considered as supplementary to his former one, regarding prohibited loans. We recommend it to your most serious attention, for it contains a statement of facts, both with respect to the Carnatic and to the Tanjore country, that will completely satisfy you of the necessity of a very early interposition of your authority, as the sole method that can operate to the preservation of the British interests on the coast of Coromandel.

4. You will observe, in Lord Hobart's Minute, that a measure is suggested for putting an end to the usury and extortion which have been so long in practice, and to which may be ascribed the greatest part of the evils now existing. We do not feel ourselves competent to adopt this measure without your authority; but we are certain that if it were sanctioned by you, and rigidly enforced by this government, it would very soon destroy a custom, the pernicious effects of which have been demonstratively shown.

Extract Fort Saint George Political Consultations; the 24th November 1795.

The President delivers in the following Minute.

INTRUSTED with the government of the Company's affairs upon the coast, it is my duty, not merely to look to that temporary prosperity which an increase in their revenues, and the manifest improvement of their commercial concerns, is calculated to afford; but, considering their permanent interests as the substantial object of every administration, to point out all defects in their system, and more particularly if they are of a nature tending to undermine their resources and contribute in an alarming degree to the insecurity of their possessions.

Under this conviction, the Minute to which the opinions I am now offering may be deemed supplementary, has been submitted.

The treaty of 1792, entered into by Lord Cornwallis on the part of the Company, and the Nabob Wallajaw, appears to have embraced three objects, viz. "The discharge of the Nabob's private consolidated debts; provision for a military establishment in time of peace; and an arrangement to supply resources for a period of hostility." The Company binding themselves, for a stipulated sum (nine lacs of pagodas), to furnish a sufficient military force for the defence of the Carnatic, and the Nabob engaging to pay a certain subsidy, under a guarantee of landed security, whereby a proportion of the revenues of the Carnatic were mortgaged for the execution of the provisions of the treaty; and therefore, so long as the Company fulfil the conditions on their part, they have acquired an interest, and eventually a right of interference, to prevent the declension of those revenues to the extent of their being rendered inadequate to the security for which they have been pledged. As they can have no claim, and, notwithstanding the increase of their military expenses, have made none, under any circumstances, for calling upon the Nabob to augment his stipulated payments; so, on the other hand, under a liberal and equal construction of the treaty, they would be justified in interposing their authority to guard against a positive deficiency in the appropriated resources. Was the security in bullion or moveables of any kind, an attempt to transport it out of the reach of the Company, even during a period that no defalcation had arisen in the payment of the kists, would probably be resisted, if necessary, by force. The difference in the case now under discussion; is, that whatever diminution (and it is considerable) in value the security is gradually though rapidly sustaining, come along with it the destruction of the human race and the desolation of the country.

The treaty is formed upon a well-founded presumption that the districts specified therein are capable, either in the hands of the Company or of the Nabob, of producing revenues competent to the purposes for which they are given as security; but that security becomes nugatory, if the excessive deterioration of it shall not be deemed a virtual violation of the treaty, and warrant the adoption of measures with a view to avert the injurious effects of such deterioration.

If we look back to the origin of the treaty of 1792, we shall find that it arose from the representation of the Nabob Wallajaw that, without imposing burthens on his people which they were not able to bear, he could not make the payments to the Company stipulated for in the treaty of 1787; but he had no sooner prevailed upon the government to acquiesce in a reduction of those payments, which he effected by the treaty of 1792, than by the manner in which he carried the provisions of it into execution, he increased the miseries of his people tenfold, and defeated every humane and salutary object it was intended to attain.

Should the principal I have laid down be deemed insufficient to warrant a revision, and even a compulsory modification of the treaty, the open and notorious violation of it on the part of the Nabob, by granting, without the authority of government, tuncaws and assignments upon the mortgaged districts, contrary to an express article of it, would indisputably justify such measures as might be thought advisable for the security of the Company, and in my opinion calls upon the Court of Directors to issue such orders as may be best calculated to guard the interests of their constituents from so alarming and extensive an evil. Under such an impression I have ventured to make a proposition to the Nabob, offering great, but in my mind necessary sacrifices, on the part of the Company, for the accomplishment of an object connecting their substantial interests with the welfare of the people of the Carnatic.

To those who may think the sacrifice too great, I would observe that the realization of the sums proposed to be relinquished (probably above thirty lacs of pagodas), under the present system, is a phantom that may be held up to their view, but must for ever disappoint their expectations. The advantages to the Nabob, as well as to the Company, in the plan I have suggested, are extremely obvious. During the period of hostility, an increase of revenue, arising from an improved management, would be an essential resource to the government, in which his Highness would participate, from the receipt of a proportionate addition to his fifth of the whole produce; whilst in peace the benefit would be extensively his: under existing circumstances the Company sustain no loss, except in the extraction of the inhabitants of the Carnatic; but in the arduous season of war they must experience the most fatal defalcations. It has been with the deepest regret that I have found the Nabob unmoved by my entreaties and remonstrances upon this subject; not that he has been insensible to the justice and expediency of what I have proposed, but, as he has candidly confessed at several interviews with me, that he has not the resolution to comply; informing me that his native minister, and European advisers, so perplexed, plagued, and intimidated him, that he could not venture upon the measure, notwithstanding his conviction that he ought to do so.

Appx. No. 7.

Discharging the Nabob of Arcot's Kists.

In my Minute of the 24th ultimo, I went into a full explanation of the mischiefs resulting from the pernicious practice of usurious loans; I traced the iniquitous system through all its intricacies, and exposed a detail of oppression and rapine not less offensive to humanity than destructive of public property and ruinous to the permanent interests of the Carnatic. The operation however of this system is not confined to the subjects of his Highness; it takes a wider range, and affects in a sensible degree the public credit of the Company; for a very large proportion of the specie in circulation being applied to the uses of the Nabob at an exorbitant interest, government are forced into the measure of depreciating their own paper in order to raise funds adequate to the exigencies of the state. The persons concerned with the Durbar, from the immense profit they reap, are well able to afford to raise money at twelve per cent., the legal interest of the country, and to lodge ample security for the debt; and hence it is that the Company are driven to the necessity of increasing the rate of interest upon their own paper in order to supply their immediate wants. The effects of these usurious loans upon the commercial interests of the country, as well as every material improvement which would require a capital, are most lamentable. No trade can stand a competition with such exorbitant profits; and when the practice, which so generally prevails with the eastern princes, of hoarding up every pagoda they can lay hold of, is superadded to the various corroding evils that have been stated, it would seem that such a complicated system of ruin and devastation was without a precedent in the annals of the world.

Had the treaty of 1792 been adhered to with that good faith which the British nation had a right to expect from his highness the Nabob, the country would have found in it a source of increasing prosperity, since by its wise provisions, a considerable portion of the Carnatic was exonerated from those private assignments which have ever been productive of such oppression and distress to the inhabitants.

To the violation, therefore, of the treaty, may be attributed those evils which have been so fully set forth, and which loudly demand instant eradication.

The situation of the Tanjore country, from precisely the same causes, is still more desperate. It has recently been developed with an accuracy not to be questioned; by which it appears, that notwithstanding the Company consented, with a view to the Rajah's accommodation, to remit for the term of three years, more than one-fifth of his annual payments, his Excellency is at this moment embarrassed with a debt of at least twelve lacs of pagodas; and when we consider there is an interest chargeable upon it of two and three per cent. per month, and that the whole country is mortgaged for the payment, where are the means by which the Rajah will be enabled to fulfil his engagements to the Company without ruin to his people?

Were I to attempt to describe the present state of the Tanjore country, it would be little more than a repetition of what I have said respecting the Carnatic; since the same system prevails throughout, but if possible has been productive of a quicker progress to decay and impoverishment in the Rajah's dominions.

I have it, therefore, in contemplation to authorize Mr. Macleod to propose to him, to assign over to the Company the districts mortgaged for his stipulated payments, upon a footing similar to that, as far as circumstances will permit, which I have suggested in the arrangement relative to the Carnatic. I must candidly acknowledge that I am not sufficiently sanguine to expect that the influence which has operated to prevent the Nabob's concurrence will not have equal effect with the Rajah. As precisely the same arguments and the same urgency apply to the one case as the other, I trust an early remedy for both will be provided by the Court of Directors, and before the countries are irretrievably ruined. The acts of the legislature with respect to usurious bargains, the reiterated order of the Company on the subject, and the iniquity of such transactions abstractedly considered, have had so little effect, that I scarcely know what to suggest as a means of future prevention: possibly it might be attended with good consequences, if the Court of Directors were to order the Governor and Council of Fort St. George to take an oath, that in every case where, according to his or their belief, there shall be reason to suppose that any servant of the Company, or person living under the Company's protection, shall, subsequently to the publication of the orders in question, have been concerned, directly or indirectly, in any loan or other money transaction with any of the native powers, unless with the knowledge and express permission of government, such servant of the Company, or person living under the Company's protection, shall be called before the council board, and examined upon oath touching such supposed loan or money transaction; and in the event of such servant of the Company, or other person living under the Company's protection, refusing to answer to such questions as may be put to him, or not answering satisfactorily, so as to exculpate himself from all concern, directly or indirectly, in such loan or money transaction, he shall be sent to Europe by the first opportunity, for having been guilty of a disobedience of the orders of the Company, and punished accordingly; and with a view more effectually to check the mischief, I would recommend that a proclamation should be issued inviting to the discovery of these nefarious transactions, and offering a reward to any one that should bring forward substantial proof that such prohibited loans had been negotiated.

The pains, the trouble, the anxiety, and above all the pressure upon my personal feelings, arising from the investigation and exposure of this subject in its true colours, must be a test to the Court of Directors how important I consider it to their interest as well as to the welfare of British India.

I am aware of the numerous enemies who will start up against me for the part I have taken; but I have a shield, in the consciousness of an honest execution of my duty, which blunts their arrows, and which will ultimately render all their efforts impotent and unavailable.

I have forbore to bring forward the names of individuals, not because I am not able to do so, but because the subject is above personal considerations.

Let those who have amassed wealth by such means, enjoy it as well as they can; let it be my pride to have paid this tribute to suffering humanity, by deterring others from the commission of similar enormities.

THERE do not appear to be any records of the Madras government, which indicate an intercourse between that Government and the Petitioners, respecting loans from the said Petitioners to the Nabob of Arcot; or which indicate consent, on the part of the said government, to the loans to the said Nabob: but it appears that the fact was brought to their knowledge by a letter of which the following is a transcript.

East India House, }
the 3d June 1818. }

Extract Fort St. George Military Consultations; 3d April 1798.

Read the following letter from Captain Robert Powney, of the Nabob's service.

To the Right honourable Lord Hobart, Governor, &c. in Council, Fort Saint George.

My Lord,

I WAS appointed by his highness Wallajah, Nabob of Arcot, &c. &c. his agent in the Tinnevely province, for the avowed purpose of procuring him money to enable him to pay his kists to the honourable Company; and this appointment being sanctioned by Sir Charles Oakely, I conceive myself authorized to appeal to your honourable board for justice.

His highness Omdut ul Omrah, upon the death of his father, confirmed my appointment; and agreeable to his requisition and instructions, I advanced all my own property, and procured loans from others: as security for these loans, assignments were given upon the country, and his Highness's faith pledged, under his seal and signature, that they should remain in my hands till all the debt was paid off.

When I saw the advertisement of government, the 20th October 1795, respecting loans on mortgage, I took the opinion of two or three friends (whose judgment I could depend upon) to know if it was applicable to me; their answer was, that although a servant of the Nabob's and residing in the Tinnevely province, it applied to me as a British subject: in consequence of this opinion, I determined to withdraw, as soon as I could with propriety. From that delicacy to his Highness which was due from an old servant, I continued my advances till the end of the Phazeley year 1205; I then respectfully declined making further loans, applied for permission to retire, and requested his Highness would discharge the balance due to me on the assignments then in my possession.

The grievances I have now to complain of are, that instead of complying with my requisition, his Highness made a promise of future payment, and at the same time deprived me of all my securities by force, and appointed another agent. Although his Highness had solemnly pledged his honour, that the assignment should not be taken from me, until the balance due upon them was discharged (I have now a just claim upon them for above 50,000 pagodas, the greatest proportion of which I am in a great degree answerable for, to those from whom I procured loans, and who call upon me for repayment), he has re-mortgaged to Mr. Thomas Parry and Paupiah Bramin, in consequence of an agreement entered into by them, to supply his Highness with certain sums at stated periods. From what I have seen of this agreement, and from the declaration of the servants of Mr. Thomas Parry and Paupiah, residing at Tinnevely, I conclude their engagement is similar to that which I entered into; the only difference I know of is, that the whole revenues of the province (Puhjamahl excepted) are mortgaged to them; a proportion only was assigned to me.

When I represented to his Highness the loss I should sustain in consequence of his breach of faith, and also what others would suffer from being unable to perform my engagements with them, I was informed that all my securities should be returned on condition of continuing my loans, otherwise they must be given to those that would supply him with money: thus was I placed in a situation peculiarly distressing, for I considered the alternative given me, as a declaration from his Highness, that I should be deprived of my property if I did not make further advances upon these assignments; if I had, then was I liable, as a British subject, to be sent to England for disobeying the orders of government.

I have fifteen months arrear of salary due (which, in justice, ought to have been paid when I was removed, and Mr. Thomas Parry appointed in my room,) which his Highness has given me to understand he will not pay, as a punishment for asserting my receipt and protecting my property as much as it was in the power of unarmed peons to do.

From having served the family of his Highness for 23 years faithfully, and from having received repeated thanks for my conduct, and repeated promises of favour, I could not have supposed that I ever should be under the disagreeable necessity of accusing his Highness of such arbitrary acts of injustice.

As I cannot owe obedience to a government who have not power to protect me from oppression, I now appeal, in confidence of obtaining redress from the candour and impartiality of your honourable board.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) Robert Powney.

Minute of the Governor in Council on the foregoing.

Though the object of the foregoing letter is the hope of redressing a private injury, yet it involves matter of weighty consideration in regard to those usurious transactions which have been so frequently represented to the honourable Court of Directors, and which are fully explained and corroborated by Captain Powney's letter.

As the board can have no doubt that those representations will have attracted the serious notice of the Court of Directors, and that their dispatches by the Virginie will, among other important matters, contain specific directions for the guidance of this government upon cases of this nature—Resolved, that the consideration of the foregoing letter be postponed until the arrival of the Virginie, in order that the instructions of the Court of Directors may not be embarrassed by any measures which the Board might now take without a knowledge of their sentiments.

Political Department, October 20th, 1795.

THE Right honourable the President in Council considers it his indispensable duty to re-publish the following orders of the honourable the Court of Directors, and at the same time to intimate his determination to carry them into the most rigorous execution.

Extract of a letter from the honourable the Court of Directors, dated the 9th December 1784.

Para. 103. "WE cannot conclude this subject without adverting in the strongest terms to the prohibitions which have from time to time issued, under the authority of different Courts of Directors, against any of our servants, or of those under our protection, having any money transactions with any of the country powers, without the knowledge and previous consent of our respective governments abroad. We are happy to find that the Nabob, sensible of the great embarrassments, both to his own and the Company's affairs, which the enormous amount of their private claims have occasioned, is willing to engage not to incur any new debts with individuals; and although the legislature has humanely interfered in behalf of such individuals as might otherwise have been reduced to great distress by past transactions, we hereby, in the most pointed and positive terms, repeat our prohibitions upon this subject, and direct that no person being a servant of the Company, or being under our protection, shall, on any pretence whatever be concerned in any loan, or other money transaction with any of the native powers, unless with the knowledge and express permission of our respective governments; and if any of our servants, or others living under our protection, shall be discovered in any respect counteracting these orders, we strictly enjoin you to take the first opportunity of sending them home to England to be punished as guilty of disobedience dience of orders, and no protection or assistance of the Company shall be given for the recovery of any loans connected with such transactions. Your particular attention to this subject is strictly enjoined, and any connivance on your parts to a breach of our orders upon it, will incur our highest displeasure."

Para. 104. "In order to put an end to those intrigues which have been too successfully carried on at the Nabob's Durbar, we repeat our prohibition, in the strongest terms, respecting any intercourse between British subjects and the Nabob and his family, as we are concerned that such an intercourse has been carried on, greatly to the detriment and expense of the Nabob, and merely to the advantage of individuals. We therefore direct that all persons who shall offend against the letter or spirit of this necessary order, whether in the Company's service or under their protection, be forthwith sent to England."

In addition to the above, and with a view to the more effectual prevention of the pernicious practice of lending money upon mortgages of the revenue, the President in Council is pleased to re-publish the following article in the treaty concluded with the Nabob:—

Article 8th. "In consequence of this measure, whereby the districts mentioned in the Schedule No. 2. become responsible for any arrears that may accrue in the stipulated kists, the said Nabob agrees that he will not grant tuncaws or assignments, on any account, on the revenues of the districts of the Carnatic eventually mortgaged to the Company; and that if, contrary to this condition, any tuncaws or assignments should exist when the said districts, or any of them, shall be assumed by the said Company, such tuncaws or assignments shall be declared by the contracting parties to be of no value, nor shall they remain in effect."

The districts so mortgaged as above-mentioned, are those of Tennivelly, Trichinopoly, Madura, Ongole, Veilore, Palnaud, and northern districts of the Arcot provinces.

By order of the Right honourable the President in Council,

(Signed) Daniel Ince,
Deputy Secretary.

Appendix, No. 10 (a.)

RETURNS to Orders of the Committee of the House of Commons, dated 22d May 1818, for laying before the Committee, Proofs regarding the dates, and sums advanced by the petitioners, Messrs. Chase, &c. to the Nabob of Arcot, between 1st December 1797 and 4th December 1799.

1st. In respect to Messieurs Chase and Company.

No. 4 of Report 101. It appears that in the account of the claim of Messieurs Chase, Chinnery and McDowall, laid before the Commissioners at Madras, no advances are stated to have been made from the 1st December 1797 to the 4th December 1799; the first item therein charged being as follows:

1800, September 8th.—To the amount of the obligation from his highness Omdut ul Omrah to Chase, Sewell and Chinnery, of this date, - - - - - pagodas 285,925.

But the amount included in this aggregate, which was advanced prior to the 4th December 1799, may be traced by reference to other documents.

* No. 70 of Report 101. It appears, by an agreement between his highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah and Thomas Chase, Henry Sewell and Richard Chase, bearing date 6th August 1798 *, that the house of Chase, Sewell and Chase, agreed to make advances to the Nabob as therein specified.

It appears that on the 8th day of September 1800, a balance, including interest and commission, had accrued, under the before mentioned agreement, from his Highness to Messieurs Chase and Company, amounting to pagodas 285,925, for which the obligation referred to in the first item in the before mentioned † account was granted; and provision is therein made for the payment of that sum on or before the 30th day of June 1801.

† No. 4 of Report 101.

‡ No. 71 of Report 101.

It appears † that the component parts of this sum were,

It also appears that this balance must have been liquidated out of the further receipts from his Highness, by Messieurs Chase and Company, which are stated in the same account.

2dly. In respect to Abbott and Company.

The claim of Mr. William Abbott, on behalf of himself and partners, to which this order is applicable, is made * by him as assignee of Vassoo Dava Pillay, upon two obligations of the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah in favour of the said Vassoo Dava Pillay, one † dated 15th May 1799, for - - - - - star pagodas 73,000 * No. 1 of Report 499. † No. 2 of Report 499. The other ‡ dated the 20th June 1799, for - - - - - 57,500; ‡ No. 3 of Report 499.

in both of which it is stated, that those sums were respectively advanced by Vassoo Dava Pillay to Hussain ul Mulk at the desire of the said Nabob; and those obligations were assigned by Vassoo Dava Pillay to Mr. William Abbott, by a deed § or instrument, which states them to have been so assigned for a valuable consideration. § No. 4 of Report 499.

The commissioners at Madras, having proof before them that Vassoo Dava Pillay was only a nominal obligee, and that he advanced no consideration for the obligations in claim, and that the sums for which the said securities were granted, in his (Vassoo Dava Pillay's) name, by the Nabob, were lent by Mr. William Abbott, after the 1st December 1797, to Hussain ul Mulk (the brother of the Nabob), as renter or manager of the Arcot provinces, the said Nabob having guaranteed the repayment of the same, considered these loans to be clearly within the prohibition of the statute of the 37th of the King, c. 142, sec. 28; and therefore they deemed it unnecessary to go into a particular investigation of Mr. Abbott's accounts and transactions with the said Hussun ul Mulk.

The commissioners in England have not consequently before them any regular information to enable them to specify the dates and sums advanced by the said William Abbott to the Nabob of Arcot between the 1st December 1797 and 4th December 1799, except what can be collected from the following document, which accompanied the report of the Commissioners at Madras, and which shows the amount alleged by the said William Abbott to have been advanced by him to Hussam ul Mulk; for the whole of which amount, (exclusive of the sum of 5,000 pagodas), he has preferred the present claim upon the representatives of the said Nabob of Arcot.

It appears by a plaint filed in the supreme court at Madras, by William Abbott against Hussun ul Moolk, that the following sums are charged as advanced by the said plaintiff William Abbott to Hussun ul Moolk. No. 6 of Report 499.

May 1st.	To amount paid him this day	- - - - -	pagodas	73,000

- - -	To ditto of my Tunkah	- - - - -		2,000
				135,000

It appears by the same account, that the amount received by Mr. Abbott, the plaintiff, from 9th June 1799 to September 7th, 1799, was - 33,300 101,700; and it appears by the same account, that a part of this balance must have been subsequently liquidated.

The actual state of the account therefore can only be ascertained by a further reference to India.

Mr. Parkhouse, the secretary of the Carnatic commissioners, is directed by them to attend the Committee of the honourable House of Commons with the documents on which this return is founded; and he will have in his possession the reports at large of the commissioners at Madras upon the two before mentioned claims, lest the documents to which reference has been herein made should require further elucidation.

No awards have been passed against these claims, the commissioners having been repeatedly requested by the respective parties, to defer the final adjudication of them till the said parties could submit their case to the consideration of parliament.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Commissioners, to request that you will be pleased to inform them on what date it appears, by the Company's records, that the Act of the 37th of Geo. LETTER to the Commissioners from the Court of Directors:—According to an Order of the Committee of the House of Commons.

Sir,

East India House, the 2d December 1814.

HAVING laid before the Court of Directors of the East India Company your letter of the 21st instant, requesting to be informed, for the information of the Carnatic Commissioners, on what date it appears by the Company's records that the Act of the 37th Geo. III. cap. 143, which passed in the year 1797, for preventing loans to Native Princes without the sanction of the Company, arrived, and was promulgated at Madras; I am directed to state, in answer thereto, that copies of that Act were inclosed in the Company's packet by His Majesty's ship La Virginie, which arrived in Madras roads on the 26th April 1798, and that the dispatches by her were read in Council the 11th May following.

But it does not appear from the Company's records, that any official promulgation of the Act was made at Madras before the 4th December 1799, when the Governor in Council issued a proclamation, consisting of the Court's orders of 31st August and 5th June 1799, upon this subject, in the latter of which the provisions of the Act are referred to in the following words: "our prohibitory orders respecting our servants being concerned in money transactions with the Company's tributaries, having been sanctioned by an act of legislature," &c.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

To Geo. Parkhouse, Esquire.

Your most obedient humble servant,

(Signed) James Cobb, Secretary.

P^s 51,000), which, with the arrears of interest is stated to amount, on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of sixty-five thousand eight hundred and ninety-six star pagodas eleven fanams and twenty cash (S. P^s 65,896. 11 f. 20 c.), or twenty-six thousand three hundred and fifty-eight pounds nine shillings and eleven pence sterling (£. 26,358. 9 s. 11 d.); and having also taken into consideration a claim made in behalf of the legatees of the said Moonipillah as aforesaid, upon a bond from the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the said Moonipillah, bearing date the twelfth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, for the principal sum of seven thousand pagodas (P^s 7,000), which, with the arrears of interest, is stated to amount, on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of nine thousand and forty-five pagodas ten fanams and forty cash (P^s 9,045. 10 f. 40 c.), or three thousand six hundred and eighteen pounds and two shillings sterling, (£. 3,618. 2 s.); and having also taken into consideration a claim made on behalf of Vessanada Fawker and Vincatas Fawker at aforesaid, upon a bond from the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah to the said Cassinade Fawker, bearing date to the twelfth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, for the principal sum of twenty thousand seven hundred and seventy pagodas (P^s 20,770), which, with the arrears of interest, is stated to amount, on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, to the aggregate sum of twenty-six thousand seven hundred and twenty-two pagodas seven fanams and forty-seven cash (P^s 26,722. 7 f. 47 c.), or ten thousand six hundred and eighty-eight pounds seventeen shillings and four-pence sterling (£. 10,688. 17 s. 4 d.); and having also taken into consideration a claim made by the said Samuel Johnson and Charles Binny, as trustees aforesaid, for the one-twentieth part as aforesaid of the several sums hereinbefore claimed as aforesaid; and having also taken into consideration a claim made by the said John Fordyce, as assignee aforesaid, for the one-fortieth part as aforesaid of the sum claimed as aforesaid by the said Major-general Dugald Campbell, attorney as aforesaid; and having also taken into consideration a claim made by certain of the trustees named in the said articles of agreement of the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, for themselves and others, as assignees aforesaid, for the other fortieth part as aforesaid of the sum claimed as aforesaid by the said Major-general Dugald Campbell, attorney as aforesaid; and having duly investigated the said claims according to the covenants, provisions and directions of the aforesaid indenture, do find that that the late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah did grant eight bonds, in the name of Avadaunum Paupia Braming, for various sums amounting together to the aggregate principal sum of four hundred and eleven thousand two hundred and seventy-two pagodas and twenty-two fanams (P^s 411,272. 22 f.), with interest at twelve per cent. per annum, all of them bearing date the twelfth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and we do further find, that the debt so constituted by the said bonds, was founded in bonâ fide advances made by Thomas Parry on behalf of himself and the said Avadaunum Paupia Braming; and we do further find, that the share of the said Avadaunum Paupia Braming in the amount of the said bonds, was three hundred and fifteen thousand two hundred and seventy-two pagodas and twenty-two fanams (P^s 315,272. 22 f.), and the share of the said Thomas Parry was ninety-six thousand pagodas (P^s 96,000); and we do further find, that a bond was granted by the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, for seventeen thousand pagodas (P^s 17,000), in the name of the said Moonipillah, and another bond for twenty thousand seven hundred and seventy pagodas (P^s 20,770), in the name of the said Cassinade Fawker, both also dated the twelfth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, being a balance for advances alleged to have been made by the said Thomas Parry on behalf of the late Lieutenant-colonel Charles Smart; and we do further find, that another bond for nine hundred and ninety-one pagodas and twenty-two fanams (P^s 991. 22 f.) is alleged to have been granted to complete the settlement of the account, but in whose name does not appear, nor has any claim been made before us for the said bond; and we do further find, that setting aside the said several bonds which contained interest, and were granted subsequently to the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and making up the account of the original advances agreeable to the principles of the said deed of indenture of the tenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, the aggregate sum due from the representatives of the said late Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, on the amount of the said several bonds granted in the name of the said Avadaunum Paupia Braming, if the said bond granted in the name of Moonipillah, and also of the said bond in the name of Cassinade Fawker, and that for nine hundred and ninety-one pagodas and twenty-two fanams (P^s 991. 22 f.) was, on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, three hundred and seventeen thousand five hundred and eight pagodas twenty-four fanams and fifty-three cash (P^s 317,508. 24 f. 53 c.), or one hundred and twenty-seven thousand and three pounds eight shillings and eight-pence sterling (P^s 127,003. 8 f. 8 c.); and we do further find, that of the said amount, the sum of one hundred and forty-one thousand three hundred and ninety-five pagodas one fanam and sixty-one cash (P^s 141,395. 1 f. 61 c.), or fifty-six thousand five hundred and fifty-eight pounds and four-pence sterling (£. 56,558. 0 s. 4 d.), was and is due and owing to William Fairlie, Henry Bonham, George Hartwell, and John James, of the City of London, the constituted attornies and agents of the said Messrs. Fairlie, Gilmore and Company, of Calcutta in the East Indies, mortgagees and assignees of Messrs. Tulloch and Company, judgment creditors of the said late Avadaunum Paupia Braming; to Andrew Scott, Peter Cherry and George Arbuthnot, trustees of the late firm of the said Messrs. Harrington and Company, assignees of the said late Avadaunum Paupia Braming, the sum of thirty-eight thousand three hundred and eighty-six pagodas twenty-nine fanams and forty-six cash (P^s 38,386. 29 f. 46 c.), or fifteen thousand three hundred and fifty-four pounds thirteen shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 15,354. 13 s. 7 d.); to the said Walter Balfour, Henry Hawes Harrington and George Arbuthnot, as a committee for the Children's Tontine Fund at Madras, or the committee thereof for the time being, assignees and mortgagees of Messrs. Tulloch and Company, mortgagees of Charles Walters, deceased, assignee of the said late Avadaunum Paupia Braming, the sum of thirty-six thousand three hundred and thirty pagodas eleven fanams and forty cash (P^s 36,330. 11 f. 40 c.), or fourteen thousand five hundred and thirty-two pounds two shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 14,532. 2 s. 3 d.); to Samuel Johnson and Charles Binney, assignees as aforesaid, the sum of eleven thousand three hundred and seventy-four pagodas thirteen fanams and twenty-five cash (P^s 11,374. 13 f. 25 c.), or four thousand five hundred and forty-nine pounds fourteen shillings and six-pence sterling (£. 4,549 14 s. 6 d.); and we do further find that the sum of sixty-nine thousand two hundred and sixty-nine pagodas ten fanams and ten cash (P^s 69,269. 10 f. 10 c.), or twenty-seven thousand seven hundred and seven pounds thirteen shillings and eleven-pence sterling (£. 27,707 13 s. 11 d.), is the proportion due on the said Thomas Parry's share of the said two bonds, if nothing had been paid to the said Thomas Parry on account of the said two bonds; but a request having been made that the final adjudication of the share aforesaid of him the said Thomas Parry, be for some time delayed, the same is deducted in the following award; and we do further find, that the sum of two thousand and fifty pagodas thirty-seven fanams and four cash (P^s 5,050. 37 f. 4 c.), or two thousand and twenty pounds seven shillings and one-penny (£. 2,020. 7 s. 1 d.), is the proportion due on the principal of the bond, granted to the said late Moonipillah, for seven thousand pagodas, claimed by the legatees and their representatives as, aforesaid; but although the bond is in the name of Moonipillah and his receipt was given for it to the said Thomas Parry without the intervention of Lieutenant-colonel Charles Smart's representatives, yet as it is alleged to have originated in a sum advanced by the said Lieutenant-colonel Charles Smart subsequently to the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, the same is deducted, until further investigation, from the aggregate amount found due as aforesaid in the following award; and we do further find, that the sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-six pagodas twenty-eight fanams and seventy-four cash (P^s 14,986. 28 f. 74 c.), or five thousand nine hundred and ninety-four pounds thirteen shillings and six-pence sterling (£. 5,994. 13 s. 6 d.), is the portion due on the principal of the bond granted in the name of the said Cassinade Fawker, which bond is also alleged to have originated in a sum advanced by the said late Lieutenant-colonel Charles Smart subsequently to the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the portion aforesaid is therefore deducted, until after further investigation, from the said aggregate found due as aforesaid in the following award; and we do further find, that the remaining sum of the aforesaid aggregate, viz. seven hundred and fifteen pagodas eighteen fanams and thirty-three cash (P^s 715. 18f. 33c.) or two hundred and eighty-six pounds three shillings and six-pence sterling (£. 286. 3s. 6d.), is the portion due on the principal sum of the bond for nine hundred and ninety-one pagodas and twenty-two fanams (P^s 991. 22 f.), but on which bond no claim has been yet transmitted from India, and the amount due thereon is therefore deducted in the following award, until the legal claimant or claimants is or are before us: and we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn and Robert Harry Inglis, do hereby award and adjudge, that upon the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, the sum of one hundred and forty-one thousand three hundred and ninety-five pagodas one fanam and sixty-one cash (P^s 141,395. 1 f. 61 c.), or fifty-six thousand five hundred and fifty-eight pounds and four-pence sterling (£. 56,558. 0s. 4d.), was and still is due and owing to the said William Fairlie, Henry Bonham, George Hartwell and John Innes, the constituted attornies and agents of the said Messrs. Fairlie, Gilmore and Company, mortgagees and assignees of Messrs. Tulloch and Company, judgment creditors of the said Avadaunum Paupia Braming; and that the said William Fairlie, Henry Bonham, George Hartwell and John Innes, the constituted attornies and agents as aforesaid, have and shall have right to participate, to the amount of the said sum of one hundred and forty-one thousand three hundred and ninety-five pagodas one fanam and sixty-one cash (P^s 141,395. 1 f. 61 c.), or fifty-six thousand five hundred and fifty-eight pounds and four-pence sterling (£. 56,558. 0s. 4d.), in the fund provided by the aforesaid indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic; and that the sum of thirty-eight thousand three hundred and sixty-eight pagodas twenty-nine fanams and forty-six cash (P^s 38,386. 29 f. 46 c.), or fifteen thousand three hundred and fifty-four pounds thirteen shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 15,354. 13s. 7d.), was and still is due and owing to the said Andrew Scott, Peter Cherry and George Arbuthnot, trustees of the late firm of the said Messrs. Harrington and Company, assignees of the said late Avadaunum Paupia Braming, and that the said Andrew Scott, Peter Cherry and George Arbuthnot, trustees of the late firm of the said Messrs. Harrington and Company, have and shall have right to participate, to the amount of the said sum of thirty-eight thousand three hundred and eighty-six pagodas twenty-nine fanams and forty-six cash (P^s 38,386. 29 f. 46 c.), or fifteen thousand three hundred and fifty-four pounds thirteen shillings and seven-pence sterling (£. 15,354. 13s. 7d.), in the fund provided by the aforesaid indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic; and that the sum of thirty-six thousand and three hundred and thirty pagodas eleven fanams and forty cash (P^s 36,330. 11 f. 40 c.), or fourteen thousand five hundred and thirty-two pounds two shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 14,532. 2s. 3d.), was and still is due and owing to the said Walter Balfour, Henry Hawes Harrington and George Arbuthnot, as a committee for the Children's Tontine Fund at Madras, or the committee thereof for the time being, assignees and mortgagees of Messieurs Tulloch and company, mortgagees of Charles Walters, deceased, assignee of the said late Avadaunum Paupiah Braming; and that the said Walter Balfour, Henry Hawes Harrington and George Arbuthnot, as aforesaid, have and shall have right to participate, to the amount of the said sum of thirty-six thousand three hundred and thirty pagodas eleven fanams and forty cash (P^s 36,330. 11 f. 40 c.), or fourteen thousand five hundred and thirty-two pounds two shillings and three-pence sterling (£. 14,532. 2s. 3d.), in the fund provided by the aforesaid indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic; and that the sum of eleven thousand three hundred and seventy-four pagodas thirteen fanams and twenty-five cash (P^s 11,374. 13 f. 25 c.), or four thousand five hundred and forty-nine pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 4,549. 14s. 6d.), was and still is due and owing to Samuel Johnson and Charles Binney, assignees as aforesaid; and that the said Samuel Johnson and Charles Binney have and shall have right to participate, to the amount of the said sum of eleven thousand three hundred and seventy-four pagodas thirteen fanams and twenty-five cash (P^s 11,374. 13 f. 25 c.), or four thousand five hundred and forty-nine pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence sterling (£. 4,549. 14s. 6d.), in the fund provided by the aforesaid indenture for satisfaction of the private debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic: And we do further award and order, that the said debts being debts contracted for money bonâ fide lent to his highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, are and shall be comprised in the second class of debts under the said indenture: And we do further award and adjudge, that all the property and revenues of the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, and his successors or representatives, are and shall be for ever acquitted and discharged from all claim whatsoever in respect of the said bonds herein awarded, or the debts claimed thereon at the instance of the several before recited parties, or either of them, or of any other person or persons whatsoever; And we do further award and order, that the original bonds aforesaid herein awarded, be cancelled and delivered up to the Court of Directors of the said United East India Company. In witness whereof, we the said Sir Benjamin Hobhouse, Thomas Cockburn and Robert Harry Inglis, have hereunto set our hands, the thirteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

ARTICLES of Agreement between his Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah Wallahjah Behauder, &c. &c. &c. of Arcot and the Carnatic, on the one part, and Thomas Chase, Henry Sewell and Richard Chase, Esquire, of Madras, on the other part; dated the sixth day of August, in the year of Christ (1798) one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, answering to the 22d Suphir 1213 Higery.

Claim of Messrs.
Chase and Co.

Article I.

HIS highness the Nabob, &c. &c. &c. being indebted to Avadaunum Paupiah Braming, in a very considerable sum of money, on account of advances made to his Highness for the payment of the kists to the honourable Company, for the years Phusely 1206 and 1207, the said Avadaunum Paupiah having borrowed large sums of money from Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Chase, to enable him to make such advances; and his Highness being at this time actually indebted to the said Avadaunum Paupiah Braminy, for the Arcot and Vellore balances, in the sum of three hundred and eighty-six thousand two hundred and fifty-nine pagodas, star (386,259), his Highness engages to settle the accounts of the said Avadaunum Paupiah Braminy without loss of time; and in order to put the balance due to him into a train of being liquidated, his Highness hereby agrees and binds himself to secure the full and complete payment of both principal and interest to the said Avadaunum Paupiah; and that if Hussan ul Mulk Behauder, the present renter of Arcot, should fall short, or in any way deviate from his engagement entered into with the said Avadaunum Paupiah, that his Highness will in such or in every event, hold himself responsible to the said Avadaunum Paupiah, until his demand, both principal and interest, be fully paid and discharged.

Article II.

In case of any difference between his Highness the Nabob and the said Avadaunum Paupiah Braminy, respecting their accounts, his Highness agrees that all such differences shall be referred to the opinion of any gentleman who shall be named by the parties, and to abide by his determination.

Article III.

It is agreed that his highness the Nabob shall appoint his own aumildars, and that Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Chase, shall not directly or indirectly interfere with them in the management of the countries.

Article IV.

It is agreed that the Nabob shall receive all sums of money (except from certain tallookas), and pay the kists from his own treasury.

Article V.

His Highness the Nabob being desirous of paying the kist to the honourable Company on or before the first day of every month, and as the remittances from his Highness's talookas may not be forthcoming in time to pay the full amount of each kist as it may grow due, his Highness will require from the said Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Chase, on the 30th of each preceding month, an advance for this purpose; and which advance his Highness engages shall be repaid in thirty, or at farthest in sixty days, from the day on which such advance shall be made.

Article VI.

His Highness agrees to pay Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Chase, in consideration of all such advances, and in lieu of all charges whatsoever, such as interest, commission, premium and discount, the sum of 2,000 pagodas per month, and to Thomas Parry, Esquire, 250 pagodas monthly; which said sums of 2,000 pagodas per month, or 24,000 pagodas per annum, and of 250 pagodas per month, or 3,000 pagodas per annum, making together 27,000 pagodas per annum, shall be regularly paid every month.

Article VII.

The said Messrs. Chase, Sewell and Chase, on their part, engage to make the monthly advances which may be required by his Highness, as stated in the 5th Article, in conformity to the stipulation contained therein.

In witness whereof, the said parties have signed two agreements of the same tenor and date, and to which they have set their hand and seals.

Claim of Messrs.
Chase and Co.

THE. Déposition of his Highness the Newaub Hussum ul Mulk, Yetamah Dut
Dowlah, Mahommud Abdullah Cawn Behauder Hazzabber Jung, &c. &c. &c. (SEAL.)
Brother of his late Highness Omdut ul Omrah, Nabob, &c. &c.

I SOLEMNLY declare that the accompanying account current, produced under the signature of Messieurs Chase, Chinnery and Mac Dowall, stating the particulars of receipts and payments between the said Chase, Chinnery and Mac Dowall, and his late Highness of the Carnatic, the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, by the agency of Colonel Thomas Barrett, and on which there appears a balance, due by his said Highness to them, of two lack and forty-two thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine star pagodas eleven fanams and sixty cash, on the 30th September one thousand eight hundred and two, is to the best of my belief and knowledge strictly just and true.

(SEAL.)

I declare that the arrangements of this simple cash transaction, as set forth by Messieurs Chase, Chinnery and Mac Dowall, are precisely those which existed between the said parties; that it was a matter of common agency only between his Highness Omdut ul Omrah, on his part, and Messieurs Chase and Co. as his Highness's bankers; and that their now demand upon the honourable Company, is a claim honourably incurred by Chase and Co. and a debt justly and fairly due to them.

Persian Original.

I affirm the mode described in which the transactions of the Durbar were conducted; that the late Colonel Barrett was the acknowledged minister, secretary, and confidential manager of all the late Nabob's concerns; that he had the most unqualified authority from his Highness the Omdut ul Omrah to settle and confirm all matters that referred to his funds and revenue; and that his negotiation with the said Chase and Co. on his Highness's account, were most completely and unconditionally authorized and would have been confirmed by the Omdut ul Omrah at the close of the phuzley year, subsequently to the execution of his Highness's obligation in their favour, dated 8th September 1800, had it not been prevented by his almost sudden death.

I acknowledge to have made myself responsible to the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah for the sums stipulated to be produced from the revenues of Trichinopoly, (as they are referred to in the obligation aforesaid of the 8th September 1800), and of which I at that time had the possession; that the payments on that account to Messieurs Chase and Co. by Mariopah, which are set forth in the account current between the Nabob and Chase and Co. refer to such obligations on my part, and but for the suspension of my authority by the honourable Company, the same would have been punctually and faithfully fulfilled; I declare solemnly that Messieurs Chase and Co. were possessed of no exclusive authority, by mortgage or tuncay, to claim any payments from Trichinopoly, on account of the obligation of his Highness Omdut ul Omrah before referred to; that the connection existing between them and the Omdut was established and continued on reciprocal good faith, and that they were merely his bankers.

That from my intimate knowledge of his Highness's finances and resources, the whole balance of the account produced by Messieurs Chase and Co. would have been adjusted by the Nabob as before stated, with the interest as is thereupon charged, but for the premature death of his said Highness Omdut ul Omrah already declared. In further explanation of the receipts on the account produced by Messieurs Chase and Co., I affirm that those chinna sawney were from the revenues arising from Treppetty, corresponding with the original engagement of the Nabob as before cited, under date the 8th September 1800; and that for the whole of the payments from the Durbar regular receipts were accordingly passed, and now believed to be in possession of government; and that Messieurs Chase and Co. are equally in possession of all the vouchers to establish their payments to his Highness Omdut ul Omrah, under the signatures, as usual, of Colonel Thomas Barrett, and which they will at any time be able to produce in support of their just claim upon the honourable Company for their assumption of the territories belonging to his late Highness, which were looked to to provide for, and certainly would have first liquidated, the balance of the account between the said Chase and Co. and himself.

Signed and sealed in Chepauk palace, this nineteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and three.

COPY of the Affidavit of the late Thomas Chase, &c.

Claims of Messrs.
Chase & Co.

I, THOMAS Chase, of Madras, merchant, make oath and say, that the account current annexed, N^o 1, is a statement of a cash account, existing between his late highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, through the representation of Colonel Thomas Barrett, his acknowledged and confidential secretary and minister, and the firm of Chase, Sewell and Chinnery, since Chase, Chinnery and M^cDouall, and on which there remained, on the 30th September past, a balance due to Chase, Chinnery and Mac Douall, of star pagodas two lacks and forty two thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, eleven fanams and sixty cash.

I affirm that the last general adjustment of accounts between the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah and Chase, Sewell and Chinnery, took place on the 8th September 1800, when his Highness passed an obligation to them, acknowledging a debt bonâ fide due by him on that, amounting to star pagodas 285,925, of which N^o 2 is a copy.

I declare this deed to have been a matter of temporary satisfaction only to the parties interested; that although it appears to provide for the entire discharge of the debt by specific payments, the sums received on account of that obligation were altogether casual payments, and were credited from time to time, as they were produced by the Nabob through Colonel Barrett, in the current account before stated.

I solemnly believe and declare, that this account, agreeably to usage, would have been acknowledged and confirmed by the Nabob at the close of the ensuing Fustee, had not his almost sudden death interfered to prevent it.

I have every reason to believe that the nature of the accounts between Chase, Sewell and Chinnery, or Chase, Chinnery and Macdouall, with the Nabob, was notorious to the Madras government, and were negotiations of common agency as his Highness's bankers, inasmuch as that the propriety of them never were or could be disposed of by them.

I affirm that in former years considerable advances, through the medium of a native agent, were made by Chase, Sewell and Chase to the Durbar, but these being forbid by the act of parliament of 1797, the only means by which this accumulating debt was likely to be reduced or recovered, was to afford the Nabob continued assistance at the presidency, upon the security of his good faith only; by which operation he never failed in his engagements with the Company, and the consequence of this aid was so important that it secured to his Highness the means for his punctuality with government without distressing his subjects, and the sums so advanced by the house of Chase and Company, were invariably (as they firmly believe) directed in appropriating to the Company's Treasury, and their claim in course became gradually diminished.

I affirm the general belief of the improved state of the Nabob's finances at the period he died, and that they promised the entire liquidation of the balance against him, within a few months, on the account at present exhibited, and that, agreeably to my opinion and belief, no failure would have arisen in this respect, but for the event which placed the Nabob's country under the superintendence and authority of the Madras government.

I solemnly declare there is no agreement existing between the house of Chase, Sewell and Chinnery, or Chase, Chinnery and Mac Douall, in reference to the deed before stated, or to the account current, for any extraordinary compensation on account of the occasional advances so required by his Highness, beyond the usual charge of interest at twelve per cent. upon the account; that the firm of Chase and Co. were satisfied of the eventual honour and liberality of his Highness in consideration of the assistance they afforded him, and were inclined for every reason to forego any stipulation on that score in favour of fair, open and honourable dealings in the transactions between them.

The mode being obvious, it might not (but for the purposes of rendering every possible satisfaction) require to be particularly explained, but I solemnly declare that the negotiations generally at the Durbar were regulated and adopted by deputation. And it is equally known and acknowledged that the finances and general arrangement of the Nabob's affairs were of late years altogether superintended and managed by the late Colonel Barrett, all the advances to the Nabob were conducted through the channel of his interference, his demands for such purposes on the Nabob's account being complied with, while, on the other hand, the repayments on account of the Nabob were made by him, and the whole appear on the accounts of the circar, with reciprocal vouchers, in confirmation of the transaction, possessed by each party.

A reference to government, who are in possession of these accounts and vouchers, will corroborate the whole; and I further solemnly declare, that the firm of Chase and Co. possess the corroborating testimony of Colonel Barrett to the exactness and regularity of the transactions herein alluded to, and that (but for the intervention of his almost sudden death) it was the intention of Colonel Barrett to have given every possible testimony to the accuracy of the accounts in question, when he might have been called upon to elucidate or confirm such negotiations.

No. 82.

This claim is brought before us by Messrs. J. Kenworthy, James Balfour, and Thomas Parry, under a deed of trust executed by Messrs. Chase, Chinnery, Macdowall and Co., and their creditors, dated the 19th September 1805, the original of which has been exhibited to us, and of which No. 85 is a printed copy. The trustees have signed the deed of agreement on behalf of the firm of Chase, Chinnery, Macdowall and Co.

The claim is founded partly upon an obligation from the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, No. 3, for star pagodas 285,925, dated 8th September 1800, and partly upon advances subsequently made. From a memorandum found amongst the Durbar records, a copy of which is No. 71, and the original of which is sworn to by Mr. Parry in his deposition No. 5, and fully confirmed by the Durbar papers, of which Nos. 72 and 73 are translations, we find that the obligation in question was composed of the following sums; viz.

Balance of advance for Fuslee	1208	-	-	-	103,791
Tinavelly kists for May and June 1800	-	-	-	-	103,134
Loss on Tripatty for 1208 Fuslee	-	-	-	-	40,000
Interest	-	-	-	-	15,000
Commission	-	-	-	-	24,000

Star pagodas - 285,925

The correctness of the remaining items of debit, in the account current No. 4, is fully proved by the original letters of Colonel Barrett, Dewan to the Nabob, Nos. 6 to 30, to whose hand-writing Mr. Parry has sworn, and by the treasury accounts of the Durbar, in which we find corresponding entries of monies received from Messrs. Chase and Co., on the dates specified in the account current.

With respect, therefore, to the items of debit in the account current, we have nothing further to remark, than that, under the deed of agreement, we consider Messrs. Chase and Co. not entitled to the sum of star pagodas 39,000, included in the obligation of the 8th September 1800, for interest and commission.

On the other side of the account current, credit is given for the sum of 40,000 pagodas, das, received from Chinasawmy Chitty, who was stationed at Tirpatty on the part of Messrs. Chase and Co., to receive the amount of a tunka granted upon Tirpatty for 40,000 pagodas; and Chinasawmee swears in his deposition, No. 76, that he paid that, or nearly that amount, on various dates which he cannot specify, to Messrs. Chase, Chinnery and Co.

No. 88. Copy of a letter from the agent to the trustees.

The dates, however, on which the several payments were received in cash at Tirpatty, by Chinasawmee Chitty, are apparent from the Durbar document, of which No. 75 is a translation.

For the payments credited as receipts from Colonel Barrett, the trustees have produced Colonel Barrett's letters to Mr. Chinnery, which specify all the sums credited, except two; which two, as well as all the other sums credited as receipts from Colonel Barrett, we find regularly entered in the treasury accounts, on the dates specified in the account current; and for all of them the receipts of Chase and Co., of which No. 87 are copies, are forthcoming in the Durbar records.

With respect to the sums credited in the account current, as received from Maurip Moodelly, the account of the collections of Tritchinopoly for the years 1800 and 1801 not having been received from that district, we addressed a letter, of which No. 81 is a copy, to the collector of Tritchinopoly, and ~~No. 82 is his answer.~~

We also transmitted interrogatories to the Judge of Tritchinopoly, to be put to Maurip Moodelly, No. 77; and from his answers annexed to them, it appears that he was the agent of Messrs. Chase and Co. at Tritchinopoly, from the 26th August 1799 to the 15th May 1801, for the receipt of cash, on two tunkas granted in their favour, one for star pagodas 152,517. 23. dated 26th August 1799, and the other for star pagodas 160,000, dated 25th September 1800.

Relative to the receipts under the first tunka, any remarks appear to us unnecessary, as it must have been granted in liquidation of an account antecedent to the settlement which took place on the 8th September 1800, and appears to have no connexion whatever with that settlement.

Under the tunka for 160,000 pagodas, it appears that Maurip Moodelly received in bills and cash from the aumil, the following sums, viz.: in cash,

Pagodas	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	12,000
Drafts on different people	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	107,000
Premium charged by the aumil on the bills, at	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
1 ½ per cent.	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	1,605
Total	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	120,605

which he remitted to Messrs. Chase and Co. on the dates specified in the account current, No. 80, by bills at various sights.

The creditors in this account correspond exactly in the sum total with the account transmitted by the collector of Tritchinopoly, as also in the dates of receipt and amount of the items, except in one instance, wherein Maurip Moodelly debits Chase and Co. with the sum of 12,000 pagodas on the 22d December 1800, which sum, in the account transmitted by the collector of Tritchinopoly, stands entered as paid on the 3d of that month.

The several items credited in the account current No. 4, not corresponding in detail with the several sums stated, in the account current No. 80, to have been remitted to Messrs. Chase and Co., and not being entered as received on the dates when they ought to have been paid according to the sights at which the bills were drawn, we called for and inspected the books of Messrs. Chase and Co. and found that the account current No. 4 was correctly prepared from the actual entries in those books, with the exception of a sum of star pagodas 2,500, for which they have given credit, above what they actually received from Maurip Moodelly, on account account of the tunka, for pagodas 160,000. We also found that the variation between the account current and the account of remittances rendered by Maurip Moodelly, proceeded from the circumstance of the bills remitted by him to Chase and Co. not being paid at once by the persons on whom they were drawn, but in portions at several separate times.

We, at the same time, called upon the agent of the trustees to transmit a more detailed account of the claim of Chase and Co.

A copy of a letter received in reply from the agent to the trust, with its enclosures, and the detailed account required, bear Nos. 88, 89, and 90 of our proceedings.

In that letter, it will be observed that the agent for the trustees claims an addition of 2,500 pagodas to the balance shown by the account current No. 4. with interest; and as, on comparison of the books of Chase and Co. with the account current and deposition of Maurip Moodelly, that sum appears have been erroneously credited on account of the tunka for 160,000 pagodas, instead of an account of another tunka alluded to in a former part of this report, we are of opinion that if any portion of this claim shall be considered recoverable, the sum in question, with interest, ought to be added to the balance exhibited by the account current No. 4.

With a view of ascertaining the mode adopted in the adjustment of accounts between the Nabob and his European creditors, on tunkas granted to the latter, we examined the Durbar officer Tirmul Row, from whose deposition, No. 86, it appears that it was the practice for European creditors to give credit for all cash payments made to their agents in the districts, on the dates of these payments, and that when the payments were made by bills, the amount of them was credited on the dates on which the bills were paid.

The agent for the trustees contends in his letter that this was not the practice in regard to payments made in the districts, but we apprehend that the evidence of Tirmul Row must be held to be conclusive on this point.

According to the principle, the cash payments received by Messieurs Chase and Co. through Chinasawmee Chitty, and in one instance through Maurip Moodelly, are not credited, in the account delivered by the trustees of Chase and Co., on the dates on which they ought to have been credited; and therefore, in preparing a revised account current, No. 91, we have taken the dates exhibited by the Durbar documents, No. 75, and by the account transmitted by the collector of Trichinopoly, enclosed in No. 82, as the dates from which to credit all cash payments received through Chinasawmee Chitty and Maurip Moodelly.

With regard to the amount received by bills through Maurip Moodelly, we take the dates given in the account current to be correct; and as, under the terms of the obligation No. 3, the payments ought to have been made in cash at Trichinopoly, we are of opinion that Chase and Co. are not justly chargeable with the premium on the bills remitted by him.

We think it necessary to remark, that no further payments appear to have been made on account of this transaction, at either of the other districts in which, by the terms of the obligation No. 3, payments were agreed to be made.

Having made such remarks on this claim as appeared to us necessary, we have only further to add that if the recovery of any part of this demand be not barred under the provisions of the act of parliament of the of King cap. the amount that appears due, according to the revised account No. 91, is, - - - - - star pagodas 143,393. 23. 40.

Or, at 8s. per pagoda - - - - - £. 57,357. 8. 5½

COPY of a Letter from Colonel Smart to the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, dated May 18, 1798, transmitted with the Report of the Commissioners at Madras. Letter from Col. Smart, May 18, 1798.

To His Highness Omdut ul Omrah Bahauder, Nabob of the Carnatic, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Highness,

THE subject of this letter is of such consequence to me and my family, and so nearly interests and affects me in every point of view, that I shall make no other apology than this consideration for calling your Highness's most serious attention to its contents.

The great friendship and good faith that always existed between me and your illustrious and worthy father, the friendship that does exist between your Highness and myself, and the great reliance I ever had upon your honour and integrity, induce me, upon my being appointed to the command of Palamcotah, to enter into loans with your Highness, for the support of the Tinnavelly circar.

Although the Government had thought proper to publish prohibitions against lending money at that time, still they well knew that European gentlemen did lend money to your Highness, to enable you to pay your engagements to the Company, and particularly the different commandants of Palamcotah had ever been in the habits of advancing money upon the revenues of the country; but now the case is very much altered.

To enforce the orders of government, the British legislature have lately published an act of parliament by which I am liable, not only to be deprived of that service in which I have served (I trust with honour to myself) for twenty-seven years, but subject to legal prosecution, by which I may also be deprived of all I may possess; and although I rely strongly upon the support of your Highness, and trust to your justice, still I feel myself so uneasy under the impression of not meeting the wishes of my employers, that I have seriously to request your Highness will not consider it a breach of that friendship I have ever had for your family, when I inform your Highness I do not wish to continue any more advances of money after this ~~Fuslee year~~ ending on the 12th July next.

As it is then my wish to withdraw, this intimation I consider as only a proper mark of attention and respect to your Highness; you are no doubt perfectly well acquainted with the nature of my engagements, and I shall rely upon your coming forward at the period above alluded to, and ordering my balances to be honourably and fairly discharged.

I shall expect that your Highness will, with all convenient expedition, honour me with an answer to this letter; and with due consideration, I remain your Highness's

Most obedient and faithful humble servant,

Palamcotah,
18th May 1798.
